The person who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him. —1 Corinthians 6:17

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

As a lifelong Christian, I'm inspired by believers who are deeply committed to God. My sister, Kathleen Kaplan, is a shining example of this. She has an incredible testimony involving an angel rescue and visits to heaven, and I have witnessed the results of her miraculous physical healing. All of these are detailed in her book Bridal Heart Diary.

In 1973, the Holy Spirit opened Kathleen's spiritual ears and eyes to launch her into documenting the unseen spiritual realm. This gift is shared within her revelatory books, bringing countless spiritual encouragements to others. The messages she receives exemplify the scripture in John 14:24, "These words you hear are not My own; they belong to the Father who sent me."

Kathleen's books are a collection of messages from Heaven, including details of her relationships with the three persons of the Godhead. These messages inspire the Body of Christ to forge a deeper connection with each member of the Holy Trinity, igniting a spark for their personal accelerated spiritual growth.

Jesus gave my sister a special calling to help prepare His precious Brides for the advancement of the Kingdom and His soon return. By embracing the Heavenly revelations in her books, you will be inspired to pursue a faith that will transform your life, strengthen your determination, and prepare you as His Bride for your assigned Kingdom work.

So, please join Kathleen and me in taking your relationship with God to the next level!

FOREWORD

We possess a divine calling as Christians to embrace a close connection with Father God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit daily. This lifestyle is not just about acts of devotion but a path leading us to spiritual maturity and intimacy with them.

And guess what? We're not alone on this journey – the Holy Spirit is our guide, and the life of Jesus showed us the path to experiencing the Father's heart. How amazing is that?

The spiritual gifts we receive are tools for service, not indicators of our closeness to God. While prayer is vital, it's not the only aspect of our relationship. Natural spiritual growth is measured by our depth of understanding and connection with each member of the Trinity, which is our preparation for heaven.

Then, as Christians who are carriers of the Holy Spirit's presence, we become beacons of God's love and grace, shining brightly for all to see. Allowing the Spirit to transform our speech and actions testify to our faith and spiritual journey.

Bridal Heart Life is a clarion call to Christians. It's an invitation to embrace the lifestyle of a dedicated believer known as a Bridal Heart, possessing a wholehearted devotion to King Jesus that will be reflected in your words and actions.

This book is more than words on a page – it guides living a life of Prophetic purpose and divine fulfillment, offering divinely inspired encouragement, direction, and wisdom. So lean on the Holy Spirit to lead you through Bridal Heart Life and guide you on your customized path to become a prepared Bride for King Jesus.

PREFACE

When I authored this book, every word flowing from my pen was infused with a profound purpose of forging a beacon of light guiding you into union with Jesus, inspiring you with courage for your darkest times, equipping you with spiritual armor to face your fiercest spiritual battles, and infusing your soul with resolve to fulfill your God-given destiny.

During the quiet moments of each day, as words flowed from my heart onto the pages, I had a deep sense of honor for you. I knew Jesus had entrusted me with the mission of helping to prepare you, His Bride, for His triumphant return. Every sentence was permeated with my sincere hope of uplifting you to higher realms in the Holy Spirit, igniting the flames of your inspiration, and arming your soul with the strength to endure by faith.

You, a radiant Bride of Christ, were constantly in my thoughts and prayers. With every word I penned, I envisioned your many victories, overcoming every adversity, and standing steadfast in your intimate, joyful relationship with Jesus.

You are a precious jewel of unparalleled value, a beacon of Christ's light flowing into a dark world that desperately needs Him. This book was written to support your spiritual journey and reinforce the immeasurable worth you are as an integral part of the Kingdom of God on Earth.

As each sentence unfolded, my heart poured out prayers to God and blessings for your resilience, spiritual growth, and grace beyond measure. So, this book isn't just a collection of pages but a sacred vessel summoning you to arise, recognize your unparalleled worth, and bravely go into your future with the courage of the Lion of Judah, where you will secure your participation in the unfolding story of the ultimate victory of King Jesus, who is right by your side!

UNION WITH JESUS

I am in My Father, you in Me, and I in you. The one who has My commandments and keeps them, that person is one who loves Me.

One who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will reveal Myself to him.

—John 14:20-21

As followers of Jesus, with centuries of knowledge under our belts, we crave genuine encounters with the living God to experience His unwavering love.

Prepare to be enveloped in the personal, intimate love of Jesus Himself, the Son of God. His passion for pursuing you with His limitless, unconditional love is unmatched, and He longs to make you feel uniquely cherished.

Brace yourself for the most incredible journey as a ‘Bridal Heart,’ a term I use to describe a person devoted and in love with Jesus. He eagerly awaits taking you on this transformative journey of a lifetime that will forever change you. So, hold tight and prepare to embark on your life’s most thrilling and captivating adventure!

According to Song of Solomon 4:9-10, He’s head over heels for you and expresses His love by saying, “You have ravished My heart... how beautiful is your love...My Bride!”

The Holy Spirit went to great lengths to bring you to this book for a divine appointment that will change your life for the better—forever!

Jesus loves you deeply and desires a personal relationship with you. According to Luke 10:27, He will not rest until “...you love the Lord with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind.”

The essence of being a Christian is to embrace a deep spiritual connection with Jesus, which is very important. This can be done through prayer, reading and meditating on His word, and living according to His teachings. It's not just about acknowledging Him from a distance and identifying ourselves as Christians in name only, but about embracing a close connection with Him.

Jesus desires that you unite with Him, which is the foundation of the Christian faith – Oneness. It means becoming one with Him in spirit, aligning your will with His, and living in harmony with His teachings. It's an extraordinary and divine connection. This mystical union gives you the strength to overcome life's challenges and live meaningfully and purposefully. Pursue this mystical union with Jesus to transform your life. This union is the ultimate goal of your transformation to be in Jesus.

And that's not all – experience the ultimate love story with King Jesus that will make you fall head over heels in love with Him! To be a Bridal Heart means to be a Bride of Christ whose heart burns with an unquenchable passion for Him, leading you to spiritual union with Him and transforming you into a reflection of King Jesus Himself.

Lamb's Marriage

The wedding of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.

—Revelation 19:7

Imagine a moment when the world falls away, and you experience the presence of Jesus guiding you toward a deep and profound connection with Him. Then, as you embrace your role as His spotless Bride, you feel irresistible love and devotion for Him.

But then, something even more incredible happens. Jesus, in a profound act of love, unites with you as His bride, making you One with Him by stepping into you! This covenantal relationship is a moment that defies description, an experience unlike any other. You are no longer separate entities but a single, inseparable entity, bonded in a way that transcends the physical and reaches into the essence of your spirit. This Oneness is to be seen, not hidden, for God's glory and as a witness to a watching world that His Kingdom is real.

This union with Jesus is not a casual affair. It demands a profound and unwavering commitment, a readiness to yield entirely to His divine plan. Yet, the rewards are beyond measure for those who dare to embark on this path. You become part of a celestial tapestry, a union that surpasses the boundaries of time and space.

If you are yearning to launch on this journey, to merge with Jesus and bask in His love, know that the path is open to you. All that is required is a wholehearted pursuit of Him, and He will be there, eagerly awaiting your arrival, ready to enfold you in His loving embrace.

Surprise Event

It is no longer I that lives, but Christ lives in me.
—Galatians 2:20

Fair warning: hold onto your seats because I have a breathtaking story to share! On February 7th, 2020, during my morning prayer time, on the day we left for our twenty-one-day trip to Brisbane, Australia, to attend a Christian conference, Jesus spoke to me. He said, "Today is the day you come to Me. I have been eagerly waiting for this day to arrive, for it will demonstrate all My love for you.

Now is when two souls become one and are manifested on Earth. Many will rejoice upon witnessing it. All those who observe your life are amazed by your love for Me.

Remember when I said, 'My Father and I are One'? My words and actions were Him living through Me, and it will be the same for you. Your words and actions will be Me living through you. Even creation will rejoice when your feet touch the ground in Australia, for it will be Me!"

I was unsure how this Word would be exhibited or what Jesus hinted at by saying, 'Today is when two souls become one...' I was puzzled but didn't have time to ask questions. Our plane will take off in less than two hours, and it would be an arduous trip from Washington State to the ‘land down under.’

During our flight to Australia, two hours before we landed, the Holy Spirit lifted me and took me to Heaven, where I witnessed a breathtaking, elaborate wedding ceremony. It seemed like all the Heavenly hosts were present, and at the center of it was a beautiful bride adorned in a white diamond-studded gown and matching veil. Can you guess who the groom was? None other than Jesus Himself, dressed in His King’s attire with an ornate gold crown on His head. As the pair faced each other, their immense love radiated from their beaming smiles as they exchanged vows, and then Jesus carefully placed a gold ring on the bride’s finger.

But wait, it gets better! Then, to my shock and awe, Jesus stepped into the bride’s body, and they became one. Then the bride shone with His brilliant glory, and her eyes looked like flames of fire. And guess who the bride was? It was me! Say what? Yes, I was speechless. Now, I am considered a Fire Bride by Heaven, a carrier of the presence of Jesus.

After the ceremony, Father God said, “I rejoice with my Son on His marriage to you. He has waited for this day while hovering over you to protect you. You will shine with Him! Others will see and know you are one. My Son is now in you as one flesh, no separation. You live and move and have your being in Him. Your life is hidden in My Son. This is the goal of a relationship with Him: Oneness! Rejoice, My daughter! The manifestations of what you have been waiting for are here. Others will confirm you, but remember that your true confirmation comes from Me.”

Since that day, I have experienced union with Jesus! Now, every time my spirit is caught away to Heaven to stand before Father God, He reminds me He sees the righteousness of Jesus covering me because He lives in me! Father also told me that the scars on Jesus’ body from His crucifixion are also visible on my spiritual body, along with the name of Jesus written on my forehead! The Apostle Paul mentions this in Galatians 6:17, “I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus,” while John records in Revelation 22:4, “They shall see His face, and His Name shall be on their foreheads.”

I want to emphasize that I didn’t earn this. All I had to offer Jesus was my passionate pursuit of a deeper relationship with Him, my waiting on Him during my prayer times, and my application of the daily disciplines I previously listed.

As a result, by His grace and mercies, I am a prepared Bride and have entered into a spiritual marriage with Him. We are now one! Total immersion, not knowing where I end and Jesus begins, inseparable, lines are blurred, no separateness, I am in Him, and He is in me!

Being united with Jesus is a spiritual experience that transforms a Bridal Heart into His beloved wife. It takes a close relationship with Him from being extraordinary to out of this world!

You can start preparing for your beautiful union with Jesus, where the words in the Song of Solomon 2:16 will become your reality, “My beloved is mine, and I am His!”

FATHER'S LOVE

We know and have believed in the love which God has for us.
God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God;
God remains in him.
—1 John 4:15-16

Something wonderful is about to happen. It will feel like receiving a love letter uniquely crafted to deliver comforting and warm feelings, like a soft and cozy blanket wrapped around you in a warm embrace on a cold winter night. Each sentiment is carefully written with the utmost care, skillfully woven together like a vibrant tapestry with colorful hues of sincere acceptance and heartfelt love that come straight from the author's heart.

You will cherish this precious letter for many years as it expresses the author's genuine love, touching your soul deeply. This letter's heartfelt connection will remind you of the importance of being loved. Love is a powerful force that transforms everything it touches. It is beautiful, but it takes two halves to make it whole. One half alone can only experience self-love, but when it joins with another, it becomes a love that gives and receives. This is the kind of love our Father in Heaven showers on us.

Meeting Father God

No one knows the Son except the Father;
neither does anyone know the Father except the Son and he to whom the Son desires to reveal Him.

—Matthew 11:27

As I closed my eyes to engage in my morning prayer on May 22, 1978, I had no idea what would happen. Little did I know that the Holy Spirit was about to remind me of a truth that would introduce me to an experience that would change my life forever.

As I sat there in the stillness, I suddenly felt a powerful rush of the Spirit within me. The words of John 14:6 reverberated with my mind: “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.” It felt as if Jesus had spoken these powerful words directly to me.

I sat there frozen, unsure of what was happening. Then suddenly, Jesus appeared before me, and everything changed as He said, “It’s time for you to meet Father. “My heart skipped a beat as I thought, “Oh no! Not Father!”

You see, I had been taught to fear Father God by the traditional church I attended during my childhood. The thought of meeting Him filled me with dread and anxiety. I had always prayed to Jesus and the Holy Spirit, but never to Father.

I timidly asked Jesus, “Must I meet Father? I’m afraid of Him, but enjoy my relationship with the Holy Spirit and You.” I could hear my voice quivering with fear.

But Jesus, in His infinite compassion, reassured me. “I will not leave you alone with Father,” He said. “When I bring you to Heaven to introduce you to Him, I will be a short distance away. You can call Me to come to you at any moment. Please understand that it is imperative that you meet Him. He has great plans for your life. You must also have a close relationship with Him as you do with Me to fulfill your destiny,” Jesus said.

Feeling somewhat relieved but still apprehensive, I said, “Okay, if You say it’s best. I will meet Him.” And so, with a mixture of fear and curiosity, I prepared myself to meet Heavenly Father – the Almighty God who had instilled a sense of awe and reverence in me since childhood.

Several weeks later, He appeared before me during my daily prayer time. He smiled at me with eyes that sparkled with love, and I knew I was again being gifted with another close encounter with His extraordinary love and majesty.

“What’s on your heart today, Jesus?” I asked, my voice trembling with anticipation.

“Today, I introduce you to Father!” He exclaimed, His voice ringing out like a bell in the silence. “I have been looking forward to bringing you to Him.”

My heart skipped a beat at the thought of meeting the Creator of the universe, who had formed me from dust and breathed life into my lungs. I took a deep breath and tried to steady my nerves, but nothing could prepare me for what was coming next.

And then, just like that, I was transported to a world beyond my imagination, where the divine meets the Earthly, love conquers fear, and dreams become a reality. And in the midst of it all, there was Jesus, the one who has been with me all along, guiding, protecting, and loving me.

I was standing in Father God’s throne room, surrounded by a sea of faces present to witness what was about to take place. I could feel their eyes watching me, waiting to see what I would do next.

But I couldn’t take my eyes off Jesus, the one who had brought me here, whose love I had known since I was four. He smiled at me with a familiar tenderness, and I felt my heart swell with gratitude. As I closed my eyes and took a deep breath, I could feel His warm embrace enveloping me from head to toe. I could sense His love, His kindness, His compassion, and His grace, all wrapped up in one beautiful package that was meant just for me at that moment.

And then, He began to slowly back away from me, His smile never fading. I felt anxious as He disappeared, but I was not alone.

And then, as I turned to face forward, I saw a massive 20-foot-high wave of swirling, crystal-clear turquoise water resembling a tsunami rising up before me. I stood there, transfixed and surprisingly unafraid. I was at peace and fascinated by its beauty as the wave approached me, faster and faster, until it was upon me.

And then, just as suddenly as it had appeared, the wave dissipated, leaving me with a feeling of perfect, unconditional love that I had never known before. I knew then that I was His beloved daughter, accepted and valued down to my bones. It was an encounter where words fail to express the enormity of love felt in that moment because it is out of this world and experienced in a place outside of time, making it truly divine.

And so, I left the throne room that day, knowing that I had been changed forever, that I had met the one who had loved me all along, and that I would never be the same again.

I felt completely loved, accepted, and valued down to my bones! There is nothing to fear after all. Then, all the anxiety I once had about Him was erased. I realized this love I'm experiencing is Father God Himself! In that moment of understanding, I knew beyond a shadow of a doubt that I was His beloved daughter, and He became the Father I had always dreamed of having. I now have a heart-to-heart connection with Him that has grown over the past forty-six years, producing many more amazing encounters with Father that I share in my books.

Looking back, I realize that this encounter was the defining moment that set me on a path of freedom from fear to discover the depth and beauty of my faith. It was a moment that would shape my beliefs, values, and perspectives in ways that I could never have imagined.

Even now, after all these years, the verse of John 14:6 remains etched in my memory, a constant reminder that Jesus is the only way to a relationship with Heavenly Father. It is also a testament to the power of faith and that sometimes, the most profound revelations come to us when we least expect them.

So, the moral of my encounter is: Nothing truly satisfies the human heart like a close relationship with our Heavenly parent, the indescribable Father God!

Perfect Parent

You received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!” The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God.

—Romans 8:15-16

It's natural to have high expectations for our parents. But sometimes, things don't go as planned, which can be deeply hurtful. But don't worry. You are not alone, and you are loved and supported. You do not need validation from your family to feel loved and supported. You can turn to Father God and let Him fill the role of your emotional parent. Just imagine Heavenly Father comforting you with His loving presence when you're feeling down, just like a loving parent would.

Embracing Father God's acceptance is transformative. His love brings wholeness to your life. To experience this love, you let go of any negative perceptions you may have developed from imperfect earthly relationships. Instead, focus on His true character as revealed in the Scriptures, and let His love inspire and guide you.

Remember, you don't have to earn Father God's love. This liberates you from the unnecessary burden of perfectionism or performance. It allows you to focus on embracing a deep connection with Him, just as you are! His love is not based on what you do or don't do but on who you are as His beloved child. So trust in Father God's love, and watch your life transform!

In the quiet moments, when the 'weight of the world' feels too heavy to bear, remember that there is a love that transcends all understanding, waiting to embrace you. Father God's love is not just a concept, but a profound reality that shatters your chains of loneliness, heals your deepest wounds, and illuminates your darkest paths. Let His divine love be your guiding light, transforming your trials into triumphs and your pain into purpose. So, embrace the love waiting to embrace you, and you will find comfort and the strength to rise above any challenge.

Love Letter

See how great a love the Father has given us that we should be called children of God!

—1 John 3:1

Remember how your heart pounded with excitement and anticipation before reading a love letter's contents? It will be the same as you read the love letter from our Heavenly Father, God.

Within its pages, God reveals His love for you that is beyond measure and never-ending. He holds nothing back. He doesn't care if He looks foolish. For God is on a mission. He must reach you with the message of His love that is not based on conditions or circumstances but is always there for you, revealed in His love letter, the Bible.

The Bible is a masterpiece filled with messages of unconditional and unfailing love, from the Old Testament to the New. It's not just a collection of stories and teachings but a love letter from Father God to you. And the best part? He wants you to experience the depth and width of His love, no matter who you are, where you come from, or what you have done.

Regardless of age or life experiences, acknowledging and accepting the Father's flawless love is essential for spiritual survival and can transform your life. Why? You are designed to have a deep, committed, and loving relationship with Him. Without experiencing His love, you are barely existing. However, receiving His perfect love guarantees to calm your fears, just as it did mine.

You might wonder why God is determined to share His love with you. Acknowledging and accepting His love is essential to replacing feeling isolated, unloved, and fearful with His peace, comfort, and security.

So, no matter what life throws your way, if you need help or just reassurance, remember that God's love will embrace you. It's your rock-solid foundation. So, experience His perfect love by asking the Holy Spirit to lead you to a page within the Bible that will comfort and guide you – it's His beautiful gift to you.

Sacred Bible

Every Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness.

—2 Timothy 3:16

The Bible is a holy book unique from all other books due to its divine inspiration and remarkable unity. Despite being written by multiple authors over centuries, it is a cohesive body of work that has stood the test of time, becoming the #1 bestselling book in history!

Its consistency and the supernatural fulfillment of over five hundred prophecies prove its authenticity. Moreover, it contains a tangible anointing that brings the words on each page to life.

Apart from these attributes, the Bible offers a love beyond measure through its content of limitless comfort, wise principles, and safe direction. It provides loving support and practical guidance to anyone going through a difficult time, facing tragedy, feeling lost, or emotionally wounded.

Coping with complicated relationships can be extremely difficult, especially with those who are close, like parents, spouses, or siblings. However, it's important to remember that your Heavenly Father is a safe place and always available to you.

God understands the pain and struggles of living in this broken and condemned world ruled by Satan. It's the closest experience to hell that a Christian can have. Therefore, Father will patiently help you every step of the way.

As you navigate the road ahead, lean on your Heavenly Father. He will speak to you within the pages of the Bible to guide you, teach you, and open your spiritual understanding to know His mysteries and secrets hidden behind the words on its pages.

Matthew 7:7-8 guides how to connect with Father and receive His blessings. These verses opened my spiritual eyes to the secrets and mysteries of Heaven I share in my books. So I encourage you to: “Ask, and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks, it will be opened!”

God's Majesty

Yours, God, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty! For all that is in the Heavens and in the Earth is Yours.

—1 Chronicles 29:11

Have you ever paused to marvel at the immense power and majesty of Father God? The descriptions of His grandeur throughout the Bible are not just awe-inspiring but mind-boggling! From the glorious rainbows to the electrifying lightning to the fierce fire, it's breathtaking to fathom that He cradles the oceans in His palms and orchestrates the dance of stars in the sky. Despite the skepticism of many, He remains steadfast and keeps our world in perfect harmony. Let this awe and wonder inspire you to delve deeper into His divine nature.

But that's not all. The most exciting part is that by building a meaningful relationship with Heavenly Father, you can embark on a transformative journey that will bring you peace, comfort, and a sense of purpose. It's a process, just like any other relationship. The key is to start by getting to know Him better, and there's no better way to do that than to immerse yourself in the Scriptures. Trust me, deepening your bond with Him takes time, but don't worry. I'm here to offer tips to help you progress.

Discovering Father God's true identity can be a profound and life-changing experience. The first step is to gather as much biblical information as possible about His character, values, and protocols. With their unique and profound insights into God's nature, the Scriptures offer a treasure trove of wisdom that will truly transform your life.

Heavenly Father, your Creator, formed you in your mother's womb and has a specific divine destiny for your life. He made you fearfully and wonderfully made by His hand! His love for you is boundless and passionate, and He passionately desires a deep and intimate relationship with you.

In a world filled with lies and deceit, you will discover that Father God is faithful and true to His word. He will never abandon you or leave you to face the trials and tribulations of life alone. His faithfulness is a constant source of comfort and reassurance, a beacon of love that guides you through life's challenges. So, take the first step on this journey of discovery and let the love and faithfulness of Father God fill your heart and transform your life forever!

In a world where lies and deceit seem to be the norm, it's easy to lose faith and feel alone in the struggles of life. But I am here to remind you that there is a constant, unwavering source of love and faithfulness that will never abandon you or leave you to face your trials alone. That source is none other than Father God Himself, who is always by your side, guiding you through every storm.

Take a moment to reflect on this truth and let it sink deep into your heart. Imagine the peace and comfort that come from knowing that no matter what you face, you have a loving Father who will always be by your side.

So, my friend, I urge you to take the first step on this journey of discovery. Open your heart to the love and faithfulness of Father God, and watch as your life is transformed forever. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain. Trust in Him, and He will guide you through the storms of life with a steady hand.

Are you ready to embark on a journey that will give you an extraordinary glimpse into the very essence of Father God's character traits? Look no further than these descriptive Scriptures that will leave you in awe of His power, grace, and love.

Brace yourself for an experience that will leave you transformed and enlightened. For in these verses lies the very heart of our Creator, waiting to be discovered. So come, let's dive deep into the mysteries of Father God and witness the beauty of His nature unfold before our eyes.

- “God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all.” —1 John 1:5
God's light is not merely a physical illumination but a spiritual radiance that brightens our paths and fills our souls with hope. And the best part? As we walk in the light of God's love, we can share this light with others by spreading His love and truths.
- “No one is good except one—God.” —Mark 10:18
Acknowledging that true goodness can only be attributed to a holy God keeps us humble. We recognize that compared to Him, we are fallible and imperfect beings. This keeps us grounded and grateful, giving Him all the glory.
- “The Lord is a faithful God.” —Isaiah 30:18
Life is full of adventure and challenges that keep us on our toes, but there's no need to worry! Our faithful God is always available. His love and grace know no bounds, and He's there for us whenever we need Him. If we ever feel lost or alone, we can always turn to Him for comfort, knowing He has a plan for each of us. With the Lord on our side as a perpetual source of inspiration, there's no obstacle we can overcome. So, trust in His faithfulness and find peace in His presence. We're in good hands with God!

- “God is jealous about His relationship with you.” —Exodus 34:14
God's love for you is unconditional, everlasting, and uniquely tailored. He yearns for a deeper personal, intimate relationship with you, surpassing all others. God protects His bond with you as a loving partner fiercely guards their relationship. He yearns to be the center of your life, to guide you, and to bless you immeasurably.
- “The Creator of the ends of the Earth doesn't faint. He isn't weary. His understanding is unsearchable.” —Isaiah 40:28
Life may throw some curveballs our way, but we have a fantastic ally in God. He has our backs, offering unwavering strength and boundless wisdom to help us through tough times. Even when struggling, we know we're never going alone. We have the ultimate support system when we trust in Heavenly Father!

Father God's loyalty to you is like the stars in the sky—never-ending and always present. His purposes for you are titanic, more significant than anything you could ever imagine, and His loving verdicts on your behalf are oceanic, encompassing all and leaving nothing out. Even in His grandeur, nothing you do goes unnoticed; that's Father God's love for you!

Hidden Secret

As many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God.
—Romans 8:14

I was once again praying on the morning of February 15, 2024. As I continued, I detected Father's voice, "When you walk and talk with Me, all else pales in comparison. Nothing that the world offers will entice you. You have found the answer your heart has longed for since birth. Life is a journey that you travel to find your way back to Me, your Creator.

You were once in Me, but I chose to send you to Earth to experience separation from Me. Your longing to be reunited with Me pulled on your heartstrings and My Spirit led you on the narrow path back to Me.

This path brings transformation that unites you first with My Son and then eventually leads you back to Me. He is the only door to intimacy with Me. There is no other way, though many proclaim that there are multiple avenues into a relationship with Me, but the truth is that Jesus, My Son, is the Gatekeeper to Me.

I set it up this way to honor My Son and show that only holiness can stand in My holy presence. He accomplished all I asked of Him perfectly and sinned not in the process. He is the Darling of Heaven!”

I realized what He just described was my spiritual journey. First, Jesus introduced me to Father, then years later, Jesus married me, and then Father drew me close to Himself, making us one. Granted, it took over fifty years of walking with them to experience this journey, but now I can testify that this path is available for every Bride of Christ.

Life on Earth is about discovering what God meant for us to do while we are here, finding fulfillment in a close relationship with our Creator, and learning to embrace the love we were created from. So, we’re all on a Spirit-led path heading back to the embrace of the One who made us.

Spirit-Led Conversations

Speak these things, not in words which man’s wisdom teaches, but the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.

—1 Corinthians 2:13

It was a crisp morning on December 10, 2023, when I sat in my prayer room, waiting to connect with Father. As I closed my eyes, a familiar, gentle voice enveloping me delivered a message that reshaped my understanding of conversations with others.

“Speculating about the future only leads to controversies,” He said. “Instead, keep your conversations simple and direct, using only a ‘Yes’ or ‘No.’ Anything else will stir up the carnal nature of man rather than his spirit. Stay focused on the present moment and avoid venturing into the future, which only I hold in My hands.”

In that sacred space, I sat there in contemplation, internalizing His words. Their truth resonated deeply within me. How often have I been trapped in idle guesswork based on the intellect rather than the Spirit in man’s attempt to forecast the future? His words were a wake-up call, a reminder to always be present in the moment, to live in the now, and to rely on the Holy Spirit for information.

Father continued, “Your job is to instill the life of My Spirit into others, calling them to pursue Me in a deep relationship. All else is like vapor. Here today and gone tomorrow, but My Spirit and Word are forever.”

His words were a soothing balm to my soul. From that day forward, my conversations would be centered around His message of love and hope. His Spirit and Word are eternal, a contrast to the fleeting nature of all else.

The message from Father is a powerful reminder that we should avoid idle speculation about the future in casual conversations and focus on the present moment. It’s easy to get caught up in the uncertainties of life and become anxious about what’s to come. However, only God knows the future, and our job is to live each day purposefully.

Spiritual Fruit

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, gentleness, and self-control.

—Galatians 5:22-23

On December 26, 2018, I had an unexpected journey to Heaven. I was sitting in my office, deeply engrossed in worship, when suddenly I was transported to Father’s glorious throne room. And there, I saw Father sitting on His throne before me. From His feet up to His chest glowed like an amber fire, and from His chest upward was a cloud-like substance obscuring His face, which was surrounded by the appearance of a brilliant rainbow.

Then, the sapphire blue Throne room began to change color, slowly transforming into a beautiful iridescent sparkling turquoise. And just when I thought things couldn't get any more incredible, a large shade tree slowly emerged from beneath the floor, resplendent with glistening, turquoise-colored gems hanging from every twig.

Father explained, "This tree represents your life. Your color in Heaven is turquoise." How amazing is that? I don't understand the significance of turquoise, but I can't wait to learn more when I transition to Heaven. It was a moment where my thoughts of everything I had yet to do for Father's Kingdom flooded my mind.

Thankfully, Father was quick to reassure me. "Many will come and help you," He said. And then, in a moment that took my breath away, He added, "The fruit of the Holy Spirit in your life can be eaten or drank by others. The fruit in its original form is the easiest to produce, but the fruit's juice is created through the challenging winepress seasons in your life. This juice is the easiest and richest for the benefit of others."

As a Christian, have you ever experienced tough times that felt like you were being squeezed into a winepress? It's not easy to go through such situations, but did you know these moments are opportunities for spiritual growth and advancement in Father's Kingdom?

Well, the truth is that our Heavenly Father uses such times to produce within us the most extraordinary juicy blessings of the fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, gentleness, and self-control. Others will partake and be fortified and inspired in their faith journey. So, let's trust Father during these seasons and stand firm, knowing that our endurance through our struggles will produce our spiritual promotion, but better yet, it ultimately benefits others.

Kingdom Jewels

God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

—John 3:16

I was given a profound message on the momentous morning of November 14, 2022. The voice was unmistakably that of Father God. He proclaimed, “I will fill your hands with jewels of My Kingdom, to be shared as explanations of My secrets and mysteries with others in your books and preaching. These enlightenments will unlock the treasures of Heaven for My people’s use in proclaiming My Son’s soon return and for the coming Great Harvest of Souls.”

Father instructed me to open my left palm. My spiritual eyes were opened at that moment, revealing a breathtaking sight. A myriad of unique and radiant multicolored jewels filled my hand, each masterpiece of beauty and uniqueness. A Ruby stood out among them, its deep red hue captivating me. Father asked me to pick it up, holding it before my eyes.

“Now, look through the Ruby. What do you see?” Father God asked.

As I peered through the Ruby, it was like looking through sunglasses with red lenses. I answered, “Everything and everyone before me is covered in a red hue.” Father explained, “Yes! You are seeing how I see those who believe in My Son. They are covered with His blood and righteousness. My lens and perspective are a testament to My love for them. Also, when everyone hidden in Jesus arrives in Heaven, they will have a brilliant Ruby in their crown.”

Moving on, I was instructed to pick up the glistening bright blue Sapphire. Father continued, “My throne room floor is made of Sapphire because blue is the essence of life and the foundational color to all living things, such as the clear blue sky, crystal blue water, and intense blue ice found in the Arctic.”

This was clear and deeply personal- the jewels I held represented the Kingdom mysteries and secrets that had been explained to me so I could include them in my books for the benefit of others at this time in history.

For you, this message is a powerful reminder that as you understand and share the mysteries and secrets of the Kingdom of God, you become an instrument of empowering others. So, look through the lens of God’s love and share His revealed Kingdom secrets and mysteries found in chapter 6 of this book and those in my book Bridal Heart Scribe with others to help usher in the harvest of souls and prepare them for the return of Jesus.

His Footsteps

Jesus said, “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me.”
—Matthew 16:24

As I sat in the peacefulness of my prayer room the morning of December 29, 2023, watching the snow gently fall outside, I took that moment to connect with Father God. I asked, “What’s on your heart, Father?” and picked up my pen to document His answer.

“You, My daughter,” He replied. “How you seek My face in all you do. It comforts My heart when you find comfort in Me. You have no idea how precious the longing of your heart to be with Me really is. It shines as a beacon to all in Heaven. They marvel at the intensity of your desire as most pale in comparison.

But My Son, who laid down His life in obedience to My command, shines like the sun. He is your standard. No compromise. Sold out for Me alone!”

I replied, “Yes, Father, I long to be just like Jesus, the Lover of My Soul!”

Jesus is the unparalleled standard for complete devotion. His life is a testament to unwavering obedience, a path we are called to walk. By mirroring His actions and showing unwavering obedience, you can ascend to new spiritual heights, leading to a deeper connection with Father God.

Right Path

Be wise, and keep your heart on the right path!
—Proverbs 23:19

On the brisk Spring evening of April 3, 2024, as the sun set, casting a golden hue over the horizon, the atmosphere in my home became filled with an anticipatory silence. Within seconds, I found myself in a stirring conversation with Father God. The conversation was loaded with the intensity of lightning in a stormy sky.

With great anticipation, I asked, “What’s on your heart, Father?”

His response came, not as a whisper, but as an echo in my soul, “The common person, they presume they are in charge when, in fact, they are being led around like a bull with a nose ring. Wherever their master leads them, they will go. They are deluded to believe otherwise.”

The air around me grew denser with Father’s presence. He continued, His voice steady yet filled with compassion, “Only My Son can set them free from this bondage and illusion. He is the Truth, and He will set them free.”

There was a solemn pause that felt like heaven was leaning in to listen. “If you enumerate how their master leads them,” He said, “it will be too many to count. Their deception runs deep.”

Despite the gravity of His words, a beam of hope pierced through the gloom of the revelation as Father said, “However, it isn’t an impossible situation. My Son can set them free and place them on the right path leading to Me. This is the goal of all humanity.”

At that moment, the complexities of freedom and bondage, truth and deception, were laid bare, intertwined in a dance as old as time. It’s understood that sometimes, we go astray from the right path without realizing it. However, Jesus will shift us back to the right path.

His Child

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God.

—1 John 5:1

Father God told me on April 21, 2024, “Your life is a testimony to My saving grace. My loving-kindness held your hand as you navigated the storms of life. I watched over you, directing you towards the right path, while My angels surrounded you, ministering in ways unknown to you. All in all, your life represents what it means to be a child of Mine.” So, as a Christian, you are cradled in the Father’s loving embrace under His watchful eye.

NAME ABOVE ALL

God gave to Him the name, which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow, of those in Heaven, those on Earth, and those under the Earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.
—Philippians 2:9-11

It was a cloudless sky the morning of July 19, 2006, when I observed the last twinkly stars of the night. As I entered my office for my usual prayer, I heard a voice that I recognized instantly. It was the voice of Jesus! The same voice that had been heard by His disciples more than 2000 years ago. I was filled with indescribable excitement.

For a moment, time stood still as I listened intently to what He had to say as I wrote it all down. Surprisingly, Jesus shared with me some of His Earth experiences that aren't recorded in Scripture. I couldn't believe what I was hearing; it was an unbelievable insight into the Son of God's life that had been hidden from the world for centuries—until now.

“The world let Me down many times while I was on Earth, just as it has you,” Jesus said. “My disciples left Me more than just the time in Gethsemane at My arrest.

There were times I shared My heart with them, and they stared at Me in disbelief. They couldn't begin to fathom what I felt and saw by the Holy Spirit. They couldn't understand because they had not gone to the depths of intimacy with Father yet.

But you haven't pulled away from Him when He shares His heart with you. Your heart is one that Father can confide in and trust. You then carry His burden as your own. Oh, how He loves a heart like yours!”

These words filled me with intense joy! Hearing that my heart was pleasing to Father was the greatest gift Jesus could give me at that moment. And then He said something that expanded my spiritual awareness.

“Your identification with Me also pleases Him. He loves how you look to Us as your source of strength and life! We are your life, and nothing on Earth will replace us throughout your life, regardless of what you must experience. Your love for Us will carry you through the most challenging times and bear you on eagle’s wings to soar above life’s storms! How I love you and your ways with Us. Tell others how to live like this, and great will be your reward in Heaven with much rejoicing – hang in there! The best is yet to come!”

These words have stayed with me ever since. And now, I pass them on to you for your encouragement in pursuing intimacy with God. By identifying yourself with Jesus, look to Him as your source of strength and life.

With this love and devotion for Him, you will soar on eagle’s wings through life’s challenges and soar even higher during your mountaintop joys. So, go after close relationships with Jesus, Father, and the Holy Spirit with all your heart. As you can see from my experiences, the rewards are out of this world!

His Rose, His Fragrance

Walk in love, even as Christ also loved us and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance.

—Ephesians 5:2

As the first light of dawn crept through the window on the fateful morning of August 6th, 2023, I found myself in the quiet solitude of my room, nestled in my chair with an open heart, ready to commune with Heaven. The world outside was still as if holding its breath for a divine moment about to unfold.

Suddenly, amidst the serene silence, a gentle whisper caressed my spirit. It wasn’t just any voice; it was unmistakably His – the Lover of my soul, Jesus. His presence enveloped me in a comforting embrace.

His words were like a soothing balm, gentle yet powerful. “As My Rose, you will blossom, releasing My fragrance to the world. Many will not understand what I have done with your life, but there will be those who, by the Spirit, will discern the miraculous impact made during your lifetime. Rest in Me, and I will perform the miraculous through you.”

Each word He spoke was like a brushstroke on the canvas of my soul, painting a picture of hope, purpose, and divine destiny. It was a call, not just to exist but to live – a life fragrant with His presence, a beacon of His miraculous power.

This encounter, this divine dialogue, wasn’t just for me. It was a testament to His love and power, a story meant to be shared, to inspire you to listen for His whisper and to follow His call. You are also a beautiful Rose in the garden of the Creator, a chosen vessel for Him. Regardless of your calling, you are cherished, valued, and fully equipped to fulfill it. The world eagerly awaits you to blossom and share the heavenly fragrance of Jesus, inspiring others to do the same.

Forgive Them

Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, and forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you.
—Ephesians 4:32

It was January 14, 2024, a cold winter morning. My heart was heavy, and my soul felt bruised. A fellow Christian had said something that took me by surprise, hurting me deeply, but instead of reacting by defending myself, I responded by walking away in silence.

A new day had dawned, so I turned to Jesus for comfort and guidance. That’s when it happened – a holy revelation was given to me. At that moment, I heard Jesus speak to me in a sweet, gentle voice, saying, “Show them the Way by how YOU live.”

These words were a decisive moment that shifted my perspective from feeling sorry for myself to compassion for the person who hurt me. This removed any trace of self-pity, replacing it with a desire to honor others; whether they respond to me as like-kind is unimportant.

I made my way to the den and was immediately overcome by the presence of Jesus. Then I heard His words on the cross reverberate within my spirit, “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.”

I sobbed uncontrollably as mental images of a beaten, bloodied Jesus hung on the cross. This torture was done by men who didn’t know they had crucified the sinless Son of God.

My experience was like a baptism, immersing me in the forgiveness and compassion of Jesus for others. The depth of that encounter was both humbling and empowering. As I emerged from sobbing, I knew that regardless of how others behaved towards me, I would show love and forgiveness, which is the way to reflect my Lord.

From that day forward, I consciously live my life in a way that honors others and Jesus. Understanding that my responses have the power to either bless or curse. I want to be an example of Christ’s love and forgiveness, just as the innocent of all charges the Martyr Stephen exhibited in Acts 7:59-60: “They stoned Stephen as he called out, saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!” He kneeled down and cried with a loud voice, “Lord, don’t hold this sin against them!” When he had said this, he fell asleep.”

So, if you have an experience similar to mine, remember the words of Jesus as He hung on the cross, “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.” They serve as a reminder that you, too, can forgive and show love to those around you even when they don’t deserve it.

Sacred Shift

God didn’t appoint us to wrath,
but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep,
we should live together with Him.

—1 Thessalonians 5:9-10

On a rainy, cold Pacific Northwest morning on March 2, 2024, I entered my prayer room with a steaming cup of coffee to help chase away the chill.

As I sat down, I could not have anticipated receiving a message that would change my understanding. I heard a familiar voice as I sat at my desk and closed my eyes to begin my daily prayer. It was the voice of Father, and He spoke with a clarity that cut through the fog of the weather that had impacted my soul.

“Put an end to what is being preached about My wrath,” Father said. “It is not intended for those who are Mine. Many still believe they are appointed recipients of My anger, but this isn’t so. My wrath is reserved for those who reject My Son.”

I was stunned. For years, some Christians had taught me that God’s wrath would come down upon us like a hammer of judgment. But now, I realize that this is not the case. God’s wrath can be avoided by accepting and remaining in a relationship with Jesus.

The Father continued, “Without embracing Jesus, they are in an unrepentant state where I am unwilling to forgive their trespasses. Through their rejection of My Son, they say His sacrifice is pointless, null, and void. But to the contrary, His sacrifice is the fulcrum of man’s redemption.

Without it, man is relegated forever to his fallen state, where his destiny is identical to Satan’s. So, wake up you who have closed your heart to My Son and repent! I will have mercy on you.”

As I sat there, listening, I felt a sense of relief wash over me. I realized that God’s mercy was greater than His wrath and that every person who accepts His Son and repents of their sins will not experience His wrath but His loving mercy!

And so, I urge you to take heed of these words, and if you are not a Christian, embrace Jesus along with the mercy of Heavenly Father. Let go of your fears and doubts, and open your heart to Jesus. You will experience the love and acceptance your heart longs for.

Remember, embracing God’s love and mercy is your most important decision. Don’t wait until it’s too late; choose life and experience the abundant blessings of a relationship with Jesus.

Sincere Devotion

Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind and your neighbor as yourself.
—Luke 10:27

I entered my office for my morning prayers on the crisp Colorado fall morning of September 21, 2000. Before I began, I was impressed to ask Jesus, “What’s on your heart today?” Little did I know that the answer I would receive would open my eyes to the spiritual condition of the Body of Christ that I was unaware of.

In a swift response, Jesus said, “What’s on my heart is the spiritual condition of My people. They mix the bitter water with the sweet. They combine the tainted with the pure. They compromise on what they know to be correct. They don’t care for the things of My Kingdom. They care not for their brother and sister in Christ.”

The severity of Jesus’ words took me aback. He was not pleased with the current state of the people who claimed to follow Him. But what could I do about it? How could I make a difference?

Jesus had an answer for that, too. “Raise a standard, Kathleen. Call those who will love and follow Me with all their heart, mind, and soul. They will not trust in the world’s rulers but only in Me. I will empower them to move mountains if they follow Me above everything else the world offers. If they do this, signs and wonders will follow them, and many souls will be saved and drawn into My kingdom.”

Jesus’ words weighed heavy on my grieving heart. I knew that the task before me was immense. But I also knew that Jesus would be with me every step of the way. Then Jesus continued, “Additionally, without the power of My Holy Spirit being manifested, there is no draw for the lost souls of this generation. They look for signs and wonders because Satan has set them on a course that experience is everything. They are a perverse generation who refuse to believe without tasting, seeing, and touching. However, they are not beyond My ability to reach and save them.”

As I listened, the urgency of Jesus’ message became more apparent: “Faith has gone by the wayside. The enemy has broken this generation’s ability to trust and depend on anyone. They look only to themselves. This prevents them from coming to Me by faith alone. They must first see before they believe.”

And so, I knew what I had to do. I had to raise a Bridal Heart army of prayer warriors and call people to follow Jesus with all their hearts, minds, and souls. I had to trust Him above all else and share His message with the world. It’s a daunting task, but since that pivotal morning, I’ve been actively reaching out to the world through my website, books, and preaching in obedience to His request to raise a standard of righteousness.

Would you be willing to join me in answering His request and help change the world as a Bridal Heart with your unique talents and spiritual gifts? Knowing where to start can be challenging, but relying on the Holy Spirit to help you will make a difference and bring hope to those around you. So what do you say? Are you with me to answer His call? Let’s do this!

Spiritual Resolve

Whatever is born of God overcomes the world.
This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith.
Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.
—1 John 5:4-5

As the sun rose on October 8, 2023, I retreated to my quiet place for morning devotions. With my Bible open, I waited patiently to hear the still, small voice of the Lord. Just then, the room became filled with His fragrant presence.

Jesus said with great emphasis, “Listen, all those who call themselves by My name. I am the Alpha and the Omega.

No matter what you SEE, trust in Me!

No matter what you HEAR, believe in My Words!

No matter what you FEEL, rely on My Spirit!

Everything else will fail you. This is how you will overcome the world and its challenges.”

The authority and compassion of His message entered every fiber of my being. And then, as if to confirm the clarity and truth of Jesus’ words, this scripture came to mind: Revelation 21:6, “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life.”

At that moment, I realized that Jesus was speaking to all Christians facing significant challenges and those facing persecution. This message is especially relevant given the increasing darkness and deception surrounding us in this unbelieving world.

However, we can conquer anything life throws our way. All we have to do is abide in Jesus. I believe we’ve got this!

Bridal Love

Let Him kiss me with the kisses of His mouth:
for thy love is better than wine.
—Song of Solomon 1:2

It was a frigid morning on January 6, 2024, and as I was in prayer, Father uttered words that immediately got my attention. “In the days ahead,” He said, “there will be much turmoil in the streets. However, within the houses of My people, there will reside peace and safety. This is their inheritance, and this is My promise to them.

Those who have a relationship with My Son are recipients of My promises. All those who are Christians in name only do not receive these. Why is this so?” He asked, His voice slightly rising for emphasis. “My Son is the only way to Me and to experiencing My Kingdom promises. Those ‘He knows’ are those I recognize and put My Spirit within them. Outside of the Spirit, the human soul is dark and unredeemed. It takes acceptance of Him as Savior and a relationship with My Son for the soul to be cleansed, renewed, and filled.

So, notice has been given. Step into My Son's love, where everything that has been prepared for you as His Bride is attainable. Please do it now. There is no guarantee you will have a tomorrow."

The world outside may be in chaos, but within the walls of our homes, we can have peace and safety. And it all starts with our close relationship with Jesus. If you are a Christian in name only, you now know how to receive your inheritance.

Believer's Quest

I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet, saying, "What you see, write in a book."
—Revelation 1:10-11

The beautiful spring morning of March 7, 2024, became very meaningful. From the sanctuary of my prayer room, I beheld a breathtaking sight through the picture window, the sunrise casting hues of gold, coral, and purple into the blue sky, all reflecting onto the glistening lake below me with the radiant snow-capped Cascade mountains as its backdrop. Simply breathtaking!

As I sat, immersed in contemplating several profound scriptures, a familiar voice, the voice of Jesus, resonated within me. His words washed over me like a gentle rain, bringing His peace.

"Behold My face. Look deep into My eyes. What do you see?" His voice, gentle yet commanding, filled me.

"I see all of creation, the beauty of nature, and the majesty of the universe!" I exclaimed enthusiastically.

"Yes, and so much more will you see!" said Jesus. "The wonders I have in store for you are beyond your imagination. The world has trained you to perceive only the illusions Satan has produced. He is the master of disguise and deceptions," said Jesus.

He continued, "Yet, in the realm of the Spirit, your spirit transcends the veil that separates the visible world from the unseen spiritual realm. This is the key to understanding how John could perceive everything revealed in the Bible's book of Revelation. Without your spirit taking prominence, your spiritual vision remains limited."

"To attain the spiritual state of John, one must worship with an open heart, allowing the spirit man to take the lead," Jesus explained. "This is the gateway to engaging your spiritual vision. This transformative experience is not exclusive but demands your undivided attention, free from distractions that can hinder your adoration."

A profound reminder dawned on me as I reflected on His words—a vast, unseen world was beyond my perception. At that moment, I sincerely committed to myself to focus my attention on Him, rejecting all distractions and fully allowing my spirit to perceive the mysteries of the unseen realm.

I understand this process to be the continuation of a transformative journey into being conformed to the image of Jesus. So, join me by letting the truths in this message inspire, challenge, and empower you to transform into the prepared Bride Jesus called you to live, a life of purpose and passion for Him!

True Sabbath

There remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.
—Hebrews 4:9

On the radiant morning of Resurrection Sunday, March 31, 2024, my house hummed with the promise of renewal. Then, I was graced with a personal encounter with Jesus and His profound wisdom. His words resonated deep within my spirit, weaving a tapestry of a new understanding of the true Sabbath Rest.

Jesus told me, "In the afternoon, when everything appears to be hectic, and the world's busyness consumes, I desire to meet with My people. I know it seems inconvenient for most, but it will help them come to know Me better by keeping Me at the forefront of their minds and centered in their hearts.

Contrary to this, in the afternoon, the World seeks to distract you from My Kingdom's purposes, locking you into its system where there is no spiritual life. It attempts to distract and capture your mindset for what the rest of the day and night will hold for you.

During the night watch, I deposit what I desire to put in the hearts and minds of My people. Then, they will be restored throughout the night as they receive a reset from Me. If they aren't adequately prepared for sleep, they will wake up in the morning not ready for the new day and unable to recognize the communication I sent them in their dreams or be able to receive the reset in their bodies. So, preparing and guarding their hearts and minds for slumber is necessary.

Every morning has the potential for a new beginning, a reset within their lives. This plays an important part in their ability to function at optimum levels of their potential. My people, called by My name, are the only ones with access to this Sabbath Rest opportunity. So, tap into it and watch what happens. You will be amazed at your level of energy and brain capacity, as well as your comprehension level and creative ideas. This is the true Sabbath rest I provided for My people, which Scripture refers to. Most don't take advantage of it as it has been misunderstood by many as a simple by-product of your faith when, in truth, it requires your discipline and your focus to be on Me.

So, today, plan on scheduling time in the afternoon for a quick pause to take a deep breath and invite Me to be with you. Then, walk out the rest of your day with Me in mind; guard your eye and ear gates to protect yourself from contamination; keep the rest of your day holy and set apart for Me through your choices. This lifestyle will enable you to become receptive to My communication and able to receive physical renewal as you sleep."

As the world around me awoke to the day, I stood transformed in the light of this revelation, my heart ablaze with a newfound understanding of the Sabbath rest that transcends the physical, embracing a deep, spiritual repose that only Jesus can offer. Isn't that incredible?

On that blessed Resurrection Sunday, I was not merely a witness to the dawn of a new day but a recipient of the timeless truth that in Him, and Him alone, we find our true Sabbath rest. This beautiful reality is something we can experience here and now! It's not merely a cessation of labor or a pause from the weariness of life's toils. It is a sacred invitation to enter a place of communion with Him to receive rest in body and spirit.

In the stillness of that morning, Jesus unveiled the beauty of Sabbath Rest as a gift, a holy sanctuary in time where His people find rejuvenation in His eternal love. So come on, let's take a daily pause to prepare ourselves to receive and experience the rest of our inheritance—the one we've longed for!

POWERS OF THE AGE

I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions.
And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days,
I will pour out my Spirit.
—Joel 2: 28-29

On the morning of January 10, 2023, an ordinary day became extraordinary. As I entered my prayer room, I could feel a sense of anticipation in the air. And then, suddenly, the atmosphere was filled with Angels, and the voice of Father God resonated within me.

“I’m calling you to come here. Being with Me is where you belong. Like Prophets of old, close interactions with Me are essential to clarity and accuracy in representing Me. So, today is the beginning of a new level for you, My daughter.” His tone of voice was commanding yet comforting, and I knew that my life as I knew it was about to change dramatically.

With every passing moment, my heart pounded harder, and I felt a sense of excitement building inside of me. But that was just the beginning. As I listened intently, Father uttered the most incredible words:

“As you seek My face for the benefit of others, I will bless you with riches untold. The world cannot offer true riches, for they are of My Kingdom. Get ready to receive all I have in My heart for you to walk in. The ‘Powers of the Age’ are yours! I know I can trust you with them. You have prepared yourself.”

At that moment, I could hardly believe what I was hearing. Father had chosen me to receive the ‘Powers of the Age’ and an expanded upgrade of purpose. It was like music to my ears as I stood there, overwhelmed and profoundly grateful.

A vast new world of miraculous events is coming to the Earth. It will require every believer to stay on course. So, reliance on Jesus is critical, and abiding in Him and steeping ourselves in the Scriptures will produce rich rewards.

What are the Powers of the Age?

It is not by force nor by strength, but by My Spirit, says the Lord of Heaven's Armies.

—Zechariah 4:6

The Powers of the Age are not myths or legends but a reality that awaits those who seek the face of Father God with pure and sincere hearts. They have been reserved for this time in history.

The Powers of the Age, as prophesied in Joel chapter 2, are not given randomly. They are reserved for those who prepare themselves through fasting, prayer, and obeying Father's requests with an understanding of His power. These shall be granted access to these mighty powers of the nine gifts of the Holy Spirit and the seven Spirits of God. And when they do, the Earth shall witness an unprecedented display of supernatural power, the likes of which have never been seen before!

The believers who receive these powers shall be filled with the very light of Heaven, and their mere presence shall produce miracles and set captives free. They shall walk into demon-infested rooms, and the demons shall flee without a single prayer or word being spoken.

They shall run with supernatural speed, just like Elijah did in 1 Kings 18:45-46. And if that's not enough, they shall also be translocated, carried by the Spirit in bodily form through a spiritual portal from one place to another, just like Phillip in Acts 8:39. Imagine it – being transported in a split second from one part of the world to the other, all by the power of the Holy Spirit!

In Revelation 4:1, John saw a door or portal open in Heaven, and stepping into a portal means stepping into another dimension. These believers shall be regularly transported and translocated, just like Elijah, who was carried to Heaven by a chariot in 2 Kings 11:11.

The ‘Powers of the Age’ to come shall bring about a mighty harvest of souls for the Kingdom of God, as seen in Acts 5:12-16 and Revelations 7:9-14; 11:13. Truly, this shall be a time of great wonders and glory!

Examples of commanding or decreeing, rather than praying for something to happen, can be found in various instances in the Bible. For example, Jesus commanded a fever to leave a sick person in Matthew 8:13, commanded demons to leave people in Matthew 12:13 and Mark 1:25-26, calmed a storm in Mark 4:39, and brought a dead man back to life in John 11:43-44.

Peter also commanded a sick person to get up and walk in Acts 9:34-35, while Paul commanded a sorcerer to be blinded in Acts 13:6-12, healed a lame man in Acts 14:8-10, and cast out evil spirits in Acts 16:16-18 and 19:11-12. Even Elijah and Moses used their authority to command nature and people to follow God’s will, as described in 2 Kings 1:9-12, 1 Kings 17:1, and Numbers 16:1-35.

James 4:2 reveals a spiritual truth applicable to these powers: “You don’t have because you don’t ask.” So, I encourage you to ask for these to be given to you for the Kingdom’s sake and Father God’s glory!

Additionally, knowing that such powers are not given to just any believer is essential. Those who receive these powers have spiritually prepared themselves and will be a force to be reckoned with—the world will never be the same.

Yield to Father

You are our Father. We are the clay, and you are the potter.

We all are formed by Your hand.

—Isaiah 64:8

The morning of December 9, 2023, would become one of my life’s most amusing moments with Father God. I was engrossed in reading the Bible when I felt a strong urge to pick up my scribing pen and document what I was about to hear. And then, I heard it – a voice unmistakably that of Father.

“Pie crust!” He said. What does this mean? I thought to myself. The unexpectedness of those two words took me aback.

But then He explained by saying, “Yes, you are hearing Me accurately. A pie is only as good as the crust containing it.”

“I mold My people like pie crust. Then, I fill them with the Holy Spirit, such as the ‘Powers of the Age.’ I only want to serve up the best pie possible for others, so I take My time overseeing every nuance of the crust. So, yield to My kneading and molding process, knowing I am making you the best vessel to contain more of My Spirit.”

And so, we don’t resist this uncomfortable process but yield, becoming pliable in Father’s loving hands, trusting Him to press, shape, and squeeze us until we are ready to be filled with the extraordinary Holy Spirit’s Powers of the Age! Then, we become the best vessels to serve up the Holy Spirit’s goodness to others and bring glory to Heavenly Father.

Every time you see a pie crust, you’ll remember: “A pie is only as good as the crust containing it!”!

Lifestyle Tips

May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing to you, O Lord, my Rock, and my Redeemer.

—Psalm 19:14

Anything worth pursuing is worth the investment of our time and energy. To meet the requirements in preparing to receive the ‘Powers of the Age,’ here are some basics.

- Fearing God is to reverence Him by living within holy boundaries, obeying Him without question, and being trustworthy with His secrets by keeping them close to your heart unless He requests you to share them with others, as He has me. “Let’s have grace, through which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire.” —Hebrews 12:28-29

- Humbly depend on Father God, not your abilities or resources. Humility isn’t something we can choose to be. It is a by-product of refusing to be prideful or egotistical. “God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.” —James 4:6
- Relinquish your plans and carnal desires so God can trust you with these powers to use you mightily for His plan and purposes. “No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to one and despise the other. You aren’t able to serve God and Mammon.” —Luke 16:13
- Seek Father God wholeheartedly, not just for the gifts He can give, but to know His heart and His will for your life. “Without faith, it is impossible to be well pleasing to Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.”—Hebrews 11:6
- Abide with Jesus through prayer to seek His guidance and wisdom. There is a difference between prayer and communion. Prayer benefits your soul, and communion benefits your spirit. Communion is when your spirit has emerged into the first position before your soul through sincere, heartfelt worship. Now communion is possible, where you share your heart with God and listen to what is on His heart, spirit to spirit. “God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” —John 4:24
- Let go of ego and selfish desires so you aren’t conscious of yourself but open to the Holy Spirit to fill and powerfully use you. “They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.” —Acts 4:31

The correct way to live is by leaning on the Holy Spirit, who will guide you on your spiritual journey. Speaking of the righteous way to live, in the early morning of October 11, 2023, Jesus gave me a clear explanation of this type of lifestyle. He said, “Righteous living is comprised of how you live every moment of each day under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Without Him, you will rely on your wisdom, ultimately leading to your downfall. Man’s wisdom is limited and short-sighted, but the Holy Spirit has the mind of Father operating in Him. Therefore, lean on Him for guidance!”

Keep God #1

Do to others as you would like them to do to you.

—Luke 6:31

In the quiet morning on March 9, 2024, before the sun lit up the sky, I was blessed with a heartfelt message from Father during my morning devotions. His words stirred the depths of my soul. At first glance, He said something quizzical: “Here a little, there a little. This is how My people walk with Me.”

I thought to myself, what does that mean? As I listened with curiosity, He answered my questioning mind, “They give me the leftovers of their day. They take what they want first, then think of Me as an afterthought. Unimportant on their to-do list. This is where I remain until their crisis dissipates or their need is met. If I treated My people as they treat Me, our relationship would be nonexistent.”

Although this message was a general address, it was as if Father was peering into the depths of my heart, revealing the truth of the times I had erratic morning prayer times with Him as pressures from the world pulled on me.

I felt a pang of conviction. If you feel like I did when reading Father’s message, I have a suggestion that might help. I’ve discovered that prioritizing the daily habit of connecting with our Heavenly Father through worship, prayer, Scripture reading, and communion above everything else is a habit worth cultivating. The spiritual rewards of being in His presence daily advance your spiritual growth like nothing else!

By making these the priority of a daily routine, you’ll experience peace and comfort in His love and build a more intimate and vibrant relationship with Him. Think of it as a daily dose of Heavenly inspiration and guidance to help you navigate life’s challenges with His wisdom.

So, why not join me in this practice? Make it a habit to spend time each day sharing your heart with Heavenly Father and listening to what He says.

This practice will positively impact your life by transforming your heart and renewing your mind. Give it a try and see the incredible difference it can make! It's a simple yet powerful way to have a conversation with Him and feel His presence in your life. Trust me. It's so worth it!

Supernatural Lifestyle

He who believes in Me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these.

—John 14:12

Those who have received the Powers of the Age lead a supernatural lifestyle of astounding miracles that will take their breath away, and their encounters with Jesus are transformational. Just imagine talking with Him face to face, receiving His wisdom and guidance, and feeling His loving embrace.

The Holy Spirit is tangible and real, guiding them every step of the way. They work closely with God's Angels and the Cloud of Witness Saints to accomplish the final harvest of souls.

Visions and revelations are common everyday experiences for them, and they receive spiritual messages from the Trinity to help minister on Earth.

They will be taken in the Spirit to do ministry throughout the world, and the laws of physics will have no power over them even as they walk on water and through walls to accomplish the beautiful works of God.

But there is a warning. Beware, for if any believer seeks to call attention to themselves or show off their powers, they will be disqualified from this special forces team. So, look to the examples of Jesus and the great Prophets and embrace these powers with humility and reverence for the responsibility they bring.

- They will have visitations from Jesus, where they can see Him and talk with Him face to face. Examples are Acts 9:1-6, 18:9-10, 22:17-21, and 23:11.
- They will work with the Holy Spirit as they walk in the spiritual realm. He will become very tangible and real. They will hear His voice and be guided by Him. Acts 8:29, 13:1-3, and 16:6-7 are examples of this.
- They will work very closely with the Angels of God. In Elijah's life, 2 Kings 1:3, 15, and 1 Kings 19:5&7, and in the New Testament church, Acts 12:1-15. Peter experienced this in Acts 12:7 and Paul in Acts 27:23-24.
- They will work with the Cloud of Witness Saints to accomplish the final harvest of souls: Matthew 17:3, Mark 9:4, Luke 9:30-31, Hebrews 11-12:1.
- Visions and revelations will become a common occurrence. Acts 7:55-56, 9:10-16, 10:9-11, and 16:9 are examples of this.
- They will visit Heaven to receive messages to help minister on Earth. 2 Corinthians 12:2-4 and Revelation 4:1 are examples.
- They will be taken in the spirit to do ministry. Ezekiel experienced this in 8:1-3, 11:1-3, 24, 40:1-4, 41:1, 43:1, 44:1-4, 46:19, and 47:1. Paul had this experience in 1 Corinthians 5:3-5.
- The laws of physics will have no power over these believers, and they will walk on the way to accomplish the works of God. However, if any believer is a show-off or wants to call attention to themselves for walking on water, they will be disqualified for this special forces team. Jesus walked on water, defying gravity in Mark 6:48 and John 6:19. He also walked through doors in John 20:19 and 26. He was taken up or levitated in Acts 1:9. The two Witnesses levitated in Revelation 11:11-12.
- They will walk in extraordinary love toward others. Ephesians 5:1-2, “Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. Walk in love, even as Christ also loved us.”

Pretty impressive, right? As you surrender your desires and ego, a magnificent transformation begins within you. The light of Father God starts to shine brighter and brighter, illuminating every corner of your being.

The intensity of this light is so powerful that, eventually, it causes your flesh and skin to radiate with the glory of Heaven itself!

As you walk and move about, the air around you seems to shimmer and vibrate with Holy Spirit energy that is impossible to ignore. Anyone who comes into contact with you within the perimeter of your presence is immediately impacted, experiencing miraculous events and transformations that defy explanation!

But this incredible supernatural power comes with a personal cost. This transformation of being molded is not an easy process; it requires surrendering your will and ego. Only by avoiding sin and relinquishing any selfish ambitions into Father' God's hands will these wonders be given to you.

As you prepare to receive these mighty powers, remember that the world is desperate for a demonstration of God's power and love. The time is now, and the world is waiting for you to take your place as a daughter of the Most High God!

Two Witnesses

I heard the Lord's voice saying,
"Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?"
Then I said, "Here I am. Send me!"
—Isaiah 6:8

Hold tight, for I have something remarkable to share with you. On the sunny morning of March 7, 2024, a Prophetic message came from the Holy Spirit that will shake the foundations of the worldwide church. I'm not kidding. This is huge!

The Holy Spirit said, "In this time and place, a new movement is about to erupt on the scene. The 'Powers of the Age' have been prophesied about for many years. It will rock the church system. Those who know of it have been anticipating its arrival any day, and now it's here!

Let others know by sending a clarion call to those with ears to hear. They will open their hearts to receive this anointing and become conduits of its expression throughout the Earth! The anointings of the Two Witnesses, Moses and Elijah, will be on them as it has been foretold.”

How incredible is that? I’m telling you, this is going to be spiritually explosive. But wait, there’s more.

“It will be a movement that ushers in the physical presence of the Two Witnesses,” said the Holy Spirit. This is paramount as Father has decided to include others in the Two Witnesses’ physical appearance worldwide.

The two witnesses’ actions will be the same for those who have received the Powers of the Age. They are synonymous with each other—the two witnesses and the Remnant members. Watch how this explosive combination will hit the world scene in unprecedented exploits in the spiritual and physical realms.”

So, who are the Two Witnesses? “I will give power to my Two Witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.” These are the two olive trees, and the two lamp stands standing before the Lord of the Earth. If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. These have the power to shut up the sky so that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the Earth with every plague as often as they desire.” —Revelation 11:3-6

In all their grandeur, the Powers of the Age are poised to reveal themselves in ways that surpass our wildest imaginations. As Moses and Elijah’s anointings descend upon those who respond to God’s call and have prepared themselves, we find ourselves on the brink of a movement that will irrevocably reshape our world.

Yet, we cannot keep this revelation to ourselves. It is not just a duty but a sacred privilege to spread the word about this mighty movement and extend an invitation to all Christians. This is Father God’s extraordinary work, and we have the rare honor of actively contributing to it. Let us unite to bring honor to Jesus and Father God.

Together, we can make a significant difference by supporting this movement through prayer and inspiring others to join us. So, let’s take action now, spread the word, and be a part of this incredible move of God!

The world eagerly awaits the Daughters and Sons of God—the prepared Brides of Christ, to receive the ‘Powers of the Age’ at this extraordinary moment!

Purity Appeal

Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Renew a right spirit within me.
Don't throw me from Your presence or take Your Holy Spirit from me.
Restore to me the joy of Your salvation.
—Psalm 51:10-12

Have you ever found yourself in the midst of a fierce spiritual battle between your desires and your values? A struggle that feels like a never-ending tug of war, with the weight of temptation pulling you towards the dark side. If you're nodding your head right now, know you're not alone.

The Bible describes three cunning stages that lead to sin, and understanding them can help us avoid falling into the devil's trap. Are you ready to uncover the secrets of winning this battle and emerging victorious? Let's dive in.

As 1 John 2:16 says, “All that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Father's, but is the world's.” But what does that mean?

The process of succumbing to temptation can be broken down into three stages. The first stage involves experiencing a strong desire for something we perceive as wrong or immoral. This desire can quickly become all-consuming and dominate our thoughts and emotions.

The second stage is when this desire takes root in our hearts and grows into lust. At this point, we may start to plan and scheme how to obtain the object of our cravings.

The final stage is when we give into temptation and boast about possessing what we desire. It is at this point that sin becomes a reality, and we become separated from God's presence.

Now, if you haven't forgiven yourself for past sins, you need to be reminded that you have a Heavenly Father who loves you deeply and is always ready to forgive and embrace you in His loving arms. You have a Savior who has already won the victory over sin and death and offers you the strength and guidance you need to overcome future temptations.

Yes, temptation can indeed be powerful. It can start with a small thought or an accidental viewing, and before you know it, you're on a slippery slope toward sin. But you don't have to be a victim of temptation.

You can resist and fight back with all your strength and courage. As we all do, you can turn to God for forgiveness and a fresh start when you stumble and fall.

As a friendly reminder, your mistakes or struggles do not define you. You are defined by the love and grace of God, who has created you for a divine purpose and a destiny that is uniquely yours. So don't give up. Don't let the enemy of your soul win the battle for your heart and mind.

You are a vessel of honor, set apart for God's service and prepared for every good work. The blood of the Lamb has redeemed you, and nothing can separate you from God's love. So go forward with courage and hope, knowing that you have Jesus who is always with you, always for you, and always faithful.

Shame Resolution

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

—1 John 1:9

As the morning of December 14, 2023, dawned, I felt an unusual anticipation within my spirit. I had just finished my bible study session and was waiting for Father to speak. And then, I heard His voice, clear as day. He said, "I have a topic I want to discuss with you regarding shame and honor."

My heart skipped a beat. Father rarely spoke so directly to me before. I listened intently as He continued, “When people have unresolved sin and unforgiveness, shame is their portion. This shame creates an environment of dishonor, for they dishonor themselves and will dishonor others.”

I could feel the weight of Father’s words sinking in, and I knew that what He was saying was true. As He spoke, I could almost see the faces of those I knew who were struggling with shame and unforgiveness. It was as if Father was speaking directly to them through me.

And then, He said something that shook me to my core. “Until their situation is resolved through repentance, the blood of My Son, and forgiveness, dishonoring others will be one of their main character traits.”

I knew then that I had to share this message with others. Father’s words were too important to keep to myself. And so, I resolved to do everything I could to help those struggling with shame and unforgiveness. Because, as Father had said, until this situation is resolved, they will continue to dishonor themselves and others.

Life as a Christian can have its ups and downs, twists and turns, and surprises. But in the midst of it all, you can receive the forgiveness available to you through your faith in Jesus Christ. Then, you will be free of any shame and dishonor, enabling you to achieve the destiny Jesus has chosen for you.

Even when faced with impossible challenges, remember that you are never alone. You have a Heavenly Father who is always with you, loving, supporting, and guiding you through every step of your journey. So hold your head high in Him and keep pushing forward with faith and hope. The world is waiting for you to shine your light, and you will surely make a difference through your unwavering faith in Christ!

Profound Longing

God knows the secrets of the heart.

—Psalm 44:21

Have you ever felt trapped in a cage, unable to break free from the chains of your past experiences and mistakes? We've all been there. It's as if we're living on autopilot, going through the motions without truly experiencing the freedom of being alive.

But here's the good news: God wants to set us free. He wants us to experience the fullness of life that He has prepared for us. The only thing holding us back are the barriers built around us – such as unforgiveness, secret sins, and resentment.

So, we pray in Psalm 19:12-14, “Forgive me from hidden errors. Keep back Your servant from presumptuous sins. Let them not have dominion over me. Then, I will be upright. I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight.”

Unforgiveness is inscribed on a person's heart. It's like a seed that grows as a weed to infiltrate and take over the entirety of their heart, producing a root of bitterness and contaminating it. Matthew 6:14-15, “If you forgive men their trespasses, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

Breaking down these barriers may be uncomfortable, but it is a necessary step toward experiencing true freedom. It's best, to be honest with ourselves and God about our struggles and shortcomings. Like the Samaritan woman in John 4, we must be vulnerable and transparent with Jesus about our past sins. Gut-wrenching honesty is the only way to open the door to our hearts and allow Jesus to free us.

And once we're free, the possibilities are endless. We can live in harmony with the Holy Spirit, experiencing the incredible things that God has prepared for us. We can grow in our knowledge of God and understand the fantastic future He has promised to those who love Him.

So, break down those barriers and embrace the freedom God has prepared for you. As the psalmist says, “How good it is to be near God!”

The time is coming, and those who have prepared themselves will be granted the opportunity to receive these mighty powers. May you be among the ones selected to participate in this incredible display of God's power and might in the final days before Jesus returns!

The world is waiting for the Daughters and Sons of God to fulfill their destinies, bringing about an unprecedented display of the Holy Spirit's power on Earth. Will you be one of them?

ANGELIC REALM

An angel of the Lord appeared to Zechariah, standing to the right of the incense altar.
He was overwhelmed with fear when he saw him.
But the Angel said, “Don’t be afraid, Zechariah!
God has heard your prayer!”
—Luke 1:11-13

As a Bridal Heart, I have been blessed with the most awe-inspiring life experiences imaginable. I’ve had spectacular encounters with celestial beings such as Angels, Seraphim, and Ophanim (an Angelic being that is a wheel within a wheel with rims full of eyes). They have interacted with me and taken me on journeys beyond the physical dimension into the spiritual realm.

As you go through the pages of this chapter, be prepared to be amazed and inspired by the stories of my encounters with these holy beings. Their presence in my life has left an indelible mark on my soul of gratitude to Father God in my appreciation for their service to His children, and I hope it will do the same for you. Enter the realm of Angels, where the unseen steps into your reality.

The number of Angelic visitations worldwide has increased, sparking a growing interest in the subject. In these Last Days before Jesus returns, the spiritual veil between Heaven and Earth, the seen and the unseen, is thinner than ever. My book, Bridal Heart Scribe, includes the fascinating Angelic realm of different types, ranks, and duties of Angels, along with my encounters involving each rank.

Heavenly Angels is not a myth but a real and influential presence in our lives. However, it’s important to note that they are not to be worshipped. Scripture states that Father God uses Angels to guide, inspire, and protect His children.

Angels are not restricted to appearing only to biblical Prophets and disciples. They continue to be active today, as evidenced by my experiences featured in this chapter and the reported experiences of many other Christians worldwide.

There is a good chance that some people may have met Angels without even realizing it. According to Hebrews 1:7, “Don’t forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained Angels without knowing it.” So, keep an open mind and heart to the possibility of encountering an Angel.

Eternal Record

Every detail of my life was already written in Your book;
You established the length of my life.

—Psalm 139:16

On August 27, 2022, during my morning prayer time, I stood in awe as my spiritual eyes were suddenly opened to see a breathtaking towering twelve-foot-tall Angel. He held a large open white book in his hands, and with calm and steady hands, he wrote in it with great interest. I wondered what was contained in the pages of that book.

Father God spoke directly to me and answered my questioning mind. He said, “The record of your life is being written in that book. It contains your ups and downs, suffering, afflictions, and trials. These events can be viewed as holographic videos to those in Heaven of someone who trusted Me through them all. It instructs them of the depth of a relationship with Me on Earth. They view it as being accomplished all for My glory. Well done, daughter!”

I was emotional as Father’s words reverberated in my soul. This incredible experience of seeing there is a testament in Heaven to the spiritual work I’ve done left me feeling inspired to continue to complete every divine assignment that comes my way—regardless of the personal cost.

Your life story will be a fantastic masterpiece that reflects your victories and all the obstacles you overcame. Each chapter of your life is a testament to your unwavering faith in Jesus and your commitment to fulfilling the divine destiny that God has intended for you. Therefore, keep moving forward with the same determination and trust, and continue creating a story that will inspire countless others to follow in your footsteps, just as you are following Jesus!

Surrounded by Angels

The angel of the Lord is a guard; he surrounds and defends all who fear Him.
—Psalm 34:7

During morning prayers on October 16, 2022, my heart became alert with anticipation; I suddenly heard a voice. It was Father God. His words were authoritative. “Angels surround you, for your time has come to be revealed to the world. I am grateful for you and rejoice that you seek Me with all your heart while not relying on your understanding,” He said. And just like that, my spiritual eyes were opened, and I saw a legion of Angels surrounding me. They were magnificent, shining with God’s glory.

But there was one Angel who stood out. He was muscular, dressed as an armored warrior with brown shoulder-length hair. He stood in front of the others as the Captain of this legion, looking at me with focused determination. I wondered what his name was, and he answered my question before I even asked it. “My name is Dariel,” he said.

Then Father God’s voice returned, and His words erased any doubts I had in my soul. “You will fulfill all that I hold in My heart for your life,” He said. “Time is short before My Son returns, so keep your hand on the plow by writing, and don’t pay attention to what others say about your books.”

My heart swelled with encouragement as Father continued to speak. “Your books need to be spiritually discerned, just like My Word requires. Any criticism people have is not an issue with your writing style or content but rather a limitation of their discernment. Many will benefit from the fruit of your writing labor, and I will be pleased with your efforts.”

These words produced a renewed sense of purpose and ‘Godfidence,’ knowing Father approved of my writing and that His Angels were watching over me. From that moment on, I believed nothing could stop me from fulfilling my destiny as one of Father’s Prophetic authors.

The message that Father God gave was not meant for just me. It is a message of hope, courage, and purpose that resonates with every believer. It is a declaration that Angels surround you, that you are not alone in your struggles, and that Father has a plan for your life. So, take heart and hold onto your faith. Keep your hands on the plow, and do not be distracted by any criticisms from others. You are called to be a light in this world, share the fruit of your labor with others, and glorify your Father in Heaven. Be encouraged, dear reader, for you are never alone.

Heavenly Mandate

The great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world:
he was cast out into the Earth,
and his Angels were cast out with him.
—Revelation 12:9

On August 17, 2023, I felt a familiar sensation in the pit of my stomach. It sensed my understanding of something important was about to change, and something significant was about to be revealed. I heard a familiar voice calling out to me from Heaven. It was Father, and He asked me to go to my office, where my scribing pen and tablet awaited me. As I entered, I could sense that something profound was about to be shown to me, which would shift my focus.

After I sat at my desk and picked up my pen, readying myself for what Father would share with me, He began by saying, “Every Angelic being functions within its assigned role. If they stray, they are cast out of Heaven.

This may seem severe to you, but it keeps My government in perfect harmony with My will.” I realized I was being warned to remain fully obedient in my assigned role.

Only by doing so could I hope to understand the Father’s perspective and continue to be a part of His divine plan. Then He continued, “Knowing the beginning to the end gives Me the advantage. This is why the Angels cry, “Holy, Holy, Holy!” Only holiness can govern with the best interests of all involved above self-interests. I require nothing—I am not needy.”

With this new understanding, I am determined to fulfill my role in this Heavenly drama, knowing I am only a tiny piece of a much larger puzzle. But even so, I know that my contribution is essential, and by remaining faithful to my calling, I will help bring about a brighter tomorrow for Father’s creation.

I urge you to take heart and know that you were born with a divine purpose. You may not know what that calling is, but trust it exists and will be revealed to you in Father’s perfect timing. Just like I discovered, you, too, have the potential to make a significant impact in the world and contribute to bringing the light of Jesus into this dark world.

As an essential member of Christ’s Body, your unique spiritual gifts and abilities are desperately needed. So, hold fast to your faith and stay true to your calling, for in doing so, you will fulfill your destiny and leave a lasting legacy of God’s glory revealed through your life for generations to come.

Are You Prepared?

All who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.
—2 Timothy 3:12

During my morning prayer time on February 12, 2024, the angel of the Lord, who was recently assigned to stand by my side, appeared and spoke with a commanding voice.

He communicated a message that sent shivers through my soul. He said, “The time ahead is full of persecution on a global scale. Now is the time for all believers to prepare to stand firm in their faith. This will be their greatest challenge.”

As I listened intently, my heart raced with concern for other believers and determination to prepare myself. It felt like Father’s divine call to arms.

The angel’s voice was also soothing as if he understood how the weight of his words affected me. He continued, “Consequently, the time they have left to prepare is short. Encourage them to use their time wisely. It will bear spiritual fruit in the end. Tell them not to look at their surroundings, but see in the Spirit the treasure their choices to be ready will produce—a harvest of souls!”

Once again, I became aware that my body was trembling at the intensity of his message and the magnitude of the task ahead. The angel then took the opportunity to introduce himself formally, “I am new here, so Father has asked me to speak to you, reinforcing our connection.

You will learn my entire assignment in the days ahead. I bring more than Words from the Throne. I will instruct you in the ways of Father. Before I came, I stood in Father’s presence—He is holy! All that will be required of you will be a new level of promotion.

Father desires you to be one who will come and go as He calls you. He enjoys your company. Walk before Him in holiness, and you will be His arms and voice extended to the world. This is your mission—this is your assignment!” As the angel of the Lord completed his message, he stepped out of my sight and stepped behind the veil that separates the physical from the spiritual realm.

The angel’s words reverberated, and I knew my life had suddenly turned. As I walked away from that encounter, I knew I had been given a new responsibility on multiple levels. The message was clear: great persecution is coming, and I must prepare myself and others for the trials ahead.

Jesus warned us that we should expect to face hatred from the world, just as it hated Him. Therefore, it should come as no surprise that in these last days, persecution against believers will increase to genocide proportions.

If you are feeling fearful, it’s a natural response to what you just read. However, fear can be a destructive force that drains confidence and energy, leaving us helpless and stuck. It can also expose our innermost insecurities and vulnerabilities, leaving us feeling alone. It's like a dark cloud that casts a shadow over everything we know and believe and can cause us to forget the kindness of God and the good deeds of Jesus.

However, fear can also be a protective instinct that warns us of potential harm and keeps us safe. It's like a guardian Angel that guides us away from danger. Therefore, we should not let fear rule us but learn from it. We should be aware of its power, not be paralyzed by it. Fear is just another part of life, and deciding how to respond is up to us.

So, confront fear by replacing it with trust in Jesus, taking that first step on the call to prepare, and focusing on spiritual matters!

Language Origins

Everything that breathes—sings praises to the LORD!
—Psalm 150:6

I went to my prayer room as usual on the morning of February 27, 2024. As I glanced out the window, I was greeted by a glorious sunrise of unparalleled beauty. The royal blue sky was adorned with a tapestry of gold, coral, and lavender, casting a majestic silhouette on the deep purple snowcapped mountain range below it.

As I sat and refocused my attention to prayer, the angel of the Lord, an awe-inspiring figure with profound wisdom recently assigned to me, appeared and explained, “Solemn is a word of the Earth, not Heaven. It denotes fatalism, no hope. However, the word honor is used extensively here. It is a word expressing love, reverence, and submission all rolled into one word.”

Then he paused, allowing me to absorb what he had said. You see, yesterday, I had considered using the word solemn within my new manuscript, but it didn't feel right, so I deleted it. Now, this angel is teaching me why I felt that way. Simply amazing!

But then, as if to counterbalance the weight of his previous statement, the angel continued, “Language is an amazing tool for articulating concepts from Heaven. Without language, you become an island unto yourself.” The angel’s words were not just profound. They were transformative, helping me to connect some dots of understanding logically.

The angel shared more wisdom: “But in the realm of Father’s Kingdom, everything He created has a voice that uses language to express their praise to Him. This is the original intention for language.” As the angel finished speaking, his transformative words lingered in my mind. It was a moment that reminded me of the beauty of Father God’s original intentions before the fall of man.

With the new realization that language is primarily a tool for connecting with God, from that day forward, I honor the true purpose of language: to express love and reverence at a deeper level through my books and preaching to connect my reader first to God and then to others.

When spoken words fail to express your gratitude to God, allow your heart to talk instead. Your heart’s ‘spirit-to-spirit language’ is the most supernatural communication, going beyond all barriers. It is a direct, unfiltered communication between your spirit and God’s spirit, transcending human language. Because your heart speaks this language of love and sincerity, it creates immense joy for God.

So, let your heart lead the way and express your gratitude to Him with the deepest, most passionate, and most sincere emotions. Then, you will genuinely connect and experience God’s presence through your heart’s ‘spirit-to-spirit language.’ What a powerful and impactful message!

Divine Justice

The angel of the Lord went out to the Assyrian camp and killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers.
—2 Kings 19:35

On that unforgettable day, February 23, 2024, as usual, I waited on the Lord during my morning prayer time. I heard the Holy Spirit say an Angel was on his way to visit me, so I began to prepare my heart and continued to be still. In the past, all of my Angel visitations have been glorious to behold and delivered an encouraging message.

Shortly, I was unprepared for the Angel standing before me, unlike any other holy being I have ever encountered. Its presence was so powerful that I shivered with reverential fear and spiritual curiosity. Its towering, dark, ominous form was shrouded with a charcoal gray cloud hiding from me his physical appearance. His fierce presence caught me off guard and left me wondering if it was a demonic entity rather than a holy Angel.

Consequently, I was on high alert with a discerning focus, and to help calm my questioning heart, I asked with an authoritative tone, “Did Jesus Christ of Nazareth come in the flesh?” To my surprise, the Angelic being thundered back with an unwavering declaration, “Yes, He did!”

With a serious tone, he said, “I have been sent by Father to explain a few things to you.” His voice was a deep baritone, carrying a weight of authority that demanded my attention. He continued, “Death caused by human hands is a sin, and it blasphemes Father. But there is a death that He ordains, and I am the one He sends to accomplish the deaths of the unrighteous whenever Father chooses.”

He paused. I sensed he was scanning my facial reaction, and then he continued, “I am not well-liked, for my presence means a cleansing of the Earth is about to take place. Many will die at my hands just as Father has ordained. My time has come to accomplish His desire.”

The air in the room felt heavy, and a sense of foreboding settled over me as the Angel continued, “I was told to come to you, making you aware of His next step, for you are one He confides in.” His final words hung in the air, carrying a weight that seemed to press down on me. That moment will forever be etched in my memory as I first encountered a holy Destroyer Angel – an intense force that shook me to my core.

As I received this message, my emotions ran high with compassion for those who would die, and I couldn’t hold back my tears as I shook at the magnitude of it. I tried to process his message, and my first reaction was to cry out to Father for mercy. Just as I was about to speak my request, I heard the Father within my spirit say not to ask Him for mercy because there would be no negotiation or leniency to alter His orders to the Destroyer Angel.

At that moment, clarity hit me – the Destroyer Angel had been chosen to carry out Father’s will as an instrument of His justice and righteousness.

The Angel's actions will pave the way for what Father God has planned next for the Earth, and I couldn't help but feel bittersweet about it.

Then, a soothing comfort filled my soul as I thought of King Jesus returning to make everything new, and His peace, tranquility, and love would reign. So, at that time, the world would be transformed into a Heaven on Earth!

As you seek Jesus with your whole heart, soul, and mind, rest assured that He will not disappoint you. He will lead you along the path of righteousness and fill your life with supernatural experiences that will mark you for the rest of your life!

New Reign

The Lord Himself will descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel, and with God's trumpet.

—1 Thessalonians 4:16

The morning of January 25, 2024, was like any other day. I woke up, got ready, and began my regular morning worship. But little did I know that this day would be very different.

As I closed my eyes to pray, I suddenly felt a presence in the room. Before I could open my eyes, I heard a voice say, "I've been sent with a message from on high." And then, there he was, the Archangel Raphael. He was standing before me.

I was in awe of his glorious presence. I listened intently as he spoke calmly and reassuringly, "In the days ahead, you will see the Sons of God manifest on the Earth with your own eyes. The time has come for their release, and this includes you."

I couldn't believe what I heard, so I asked him to clarify. The Archangel smiled and continued, "Many will fall at your feet but receive it not. Tell them to praise, honor, and worship Father only."

"The time has come for the last hours of humanity in this system to exist. A new reign is coming, the Prince of Peace, the King of Kings, Jesus!

You will see Him coming in the clouds. You will be by His side as His Warrior Bride. You have fought your fight well. Now it's time for your reward.

So, wrestle not with men, and keep your focus on spiritual matters—this is your call.”

As Raphael finished speaking, I felt a sense of joy and exhilaration. This was a message of hope, promise, and victory. The world is about to change, and all believers can be a part of it. I knew I had to share this message with as many people as possible to let them know there was bright hope beyond this world's coming chaos and darkness.

And so, I'm spreading the message of preparing ourselves to be released to be vessels of the miraculous before the coming of the King of Kings. The days ahead are uncertain, but I know this timely message is a call to 'fight the good fight' on our knees in wholehearted prayer, and everyone who participates will be rewarded!

Angel Gate

All Angels are serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who inherit salvation.

—Hebrews 1:14

Brace yourself to be astonished by yet another one of my extraordinary spiritual encounters that will inscribe itself into your memory! It took place on March 11, 2024, as I immersed myself in the words of my Bible, and the Spirit suddenly enveloped me. He lifted me from the boundaries of my reality and transported me to a dimension in Heaven, a celestial-specific location I had never visited. The vista that unfolded before me was inexpressible. It was a mesmerizing expanse of ethereal clouds that stretched into infinity. This majestic and awe-inspiring vision struck my soul with a profound wonder and reverence for its Creator, Father God.

This was unlike the other heavenly realms I had been graced to visit, which bore traces of Earth's beauty with their lush landscapes. No trees were swaying in celestial breezes, no verdant grass underfoot, no splendid mansions dotting the horizon. Instead, what stood before me was a gate of unparalleled magnificence, towering and wide, crafted from the purest gold that glistened in the glorious light, its surface adorned with intricate scrollwork that seemed to dance and shimmer. Though firmly closed and locked, it beckoned me with an invisible pull, signaling that I had arrived here with a divine purpose.

The usual welcoming committee of Jesus or an Angel was noticeably absent, leaving me with my thoughts and the silent question, “Where am I?” Then, Father’s familiar, comforting voice answered, “This is where My Angels tread. It’s their abode. My children and Angels don’t dwell in the same place in Heaven. You are here to recruit the Angels I marked to serve and fight with you.”

As I stepped closer, the golden gate swung open in silent invitation, revealing the Realm of Angels. Suddenly, I was surrounded by an assembly of majestic Angelic beings, each from different ranks and orders, all marked by Father God to join me in my earthly mission. Their holy presence was overwhelming, and their pure voices united in a declaration, “You are here now because your time has come. We will serve and fight alongside you!” This moment profoundly affirmed my selection for a special mission, a divine appointment for these critical Last Days.

The experience was both exhilarating and humbling. As my time in this celestial realm drew close, Father God’s voice again filled the space, “You can come here whenever you wish. You now understand why I recently sent you an angel of the Lord to be by your side.” The reason for the Angel’s assignment had eluded me the day of his arrival, but now it was crystal clear.

This extraordinary spiritual journey reminds us that beyond our tangible world lies a realm of heavenly mysteries and celestial beings ready to support us. I pray that my experience awakens in you a steadfast belief that Father God is meticulously guiding you toward fulfilling your unique purpose and destiny. May you find reassurance in knowing that you, too, are chosen for a special mission that will be revealed to you in God’s perfect timing, enveloping your life with a sense of His calling and Angelic partnership.

King's Authority

Jesus called to Himself His twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness.

—Matthew 10:1

The tranquility of the early morning of March 13, 2024, was shifted by the sudden appearance of one of the new Angel recruits. Before the sun could even herald the dawn of a new day, Angel's earnest words pierced the silence, "The spirit of Goliath still roams the Earth. It has no place for rest. It is about to emerge on the world scene, attempting to intimidate those who walk in the Spirit."

Imagine the fear and chaos that would erupt if such a formidable foe appeared just as it did in the Old Testament biblical days when the giant Goliath taunted the armies of God, causing them to retreat in absolute fear. That is until David arrived on the scene, analyzed the situation, and responded by declaring this battle was God's, not man's. Then, in the name of God, David fearlessly defied, confronted, and defeated Goliath.

But the Angel's message didn't end there. It spoke of my unique role, "However, you will be one who discerns this spirit as a defeated foe of Father's Kingdom. The delusion will be that it can overrun those who abide with Father, but as you know, this is not the case."

As I read these words, my heart swelled with the Holy Spirit's determination. The Angel's words were a heads-up and a call to action, a powerful reminder of God's unmatched power and might. "So, arise daughter of the Living God and show them who's Boss—the King of Glory, strong and mighty!"

Like a fire igniting within me, I realized the pivotal role I had to play in this battle. I rose with a renewed purpose, prepared to confront challenges as the Holy Spirit led me. I was confident that victory was assured with the King of Glory leading the charge!

As you face the battles and challenges of life, remember the words of the Angel recruit, calling you to rise up as a daughter of the Living God and show His enemies who's Boss. With the King of Glory by your side, you have the unwavering authority and power to overcome any obstacle, push through any fear, and emerge victorious.

So rely on the Holy Spirit to ignite the fire within you, embrace your unique role, and walk boldly into the spiritual battle, knowing you will stand firm in the power of the King of Glory, strong and mighty!

REVELATORY WISDOM

The God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation.

—Ephesians 1:17

What an extraordinary morning it was on October 2, 2022! As the sun rose, I was blessed with an incredible revelation from Father God Himself. His loving voice filled my soul as He told me, “I will open the Books of Mysteries for you, unveiling the secrets within them. You will run to share these messages with the world for their benefit. The time is now because the time is short before My Son returns. The explanation of these secrets will help My people fulfill My Word. So, these Last Days are the time in history when all will see and know that I AM GOD!”

With a heart overwhelmed with divine purpose, I invite you to join me on a spiritual pilgrimage into this section of Bridal Heart Life. This journey is a divine expedition to comprehend and embrace God’s revelatory wisdom. You will experience glimpses into the unseen spiritual realm, helping you navigate life with a new understanding and spiritual alignment with God’s grand design.

Father’s Embrace

The eternal God is your refuge and dwelling place, and His everlasting arms are under you.

—Deuteronomy 33:27

On January 5, 2024, the air was still, but a buzz of excitement filled the spiritual atmosphere. As my soul filled with anticipation, I felt a familiar presence surrounding me. Then I heard His voice, both gentle and authoritative. It was Father God speaking to me soothingly and profoundly. He softly said, “Are you ready to receive a secret, My Dear?” With curiosity. “Yes, I am,” I exclaimed.

Immediately, I felt wrapped in His warm embrace as He spoke, “When you walk through troubled waters, I will be with you just as I was with My Son. He was never left alone. I held Him in My arms as He endured the crucifixion. My heartbeat kept Him alive long enough to complete His task.

When you rest in My arms, I will carry you to your finish line just as I did with My Son. For you are in Oneness with Him, and this pleases Me. This union was Our plan to fold back into Ourselves, all of fallen humanity. My Son’s blood made the way for Our goal to be achieved. In this, I am glorified. Heaven stands in awe at the redemption process.”

In life’s journey, we face difficulties that challenge us. Like a loving parent, Father God strengthens us. He will hold us through our darkest hours, giving us the power to fulfill our destinies, as Jesus did victoriously.

Never Alone

Be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.

—Matthew 28:20

For centuries, there has been a misinterpretation surrounding Matthew 27:45-47. It describes when darkness fell upon the land as Jesus hung on the cross. During this time, Jesus cried out, “Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” At this moment, Father God turned away from Jesus in His wrath as Jesus became a sin. However, on April 2, 1987, during an Easter sermon about this scene, a revelation of truth from Heaven set the record straight.

Father God said, “Comfort My people with these words. When My Son hung on the cross and cried, ‘My Father, my Father, why have you forsaken Me?’ it wasn’t about Me turning away. His words expressed the total degree of physical suffering as a man. He experienced, as you all do when in pain or suffering, the feeling of being abandoned. Physical pain usually blocks the awareness of My presence. This shows Jesus’ complete identification with human beings. He, too, was 100% human. At that moment of excruciating physical pain, He experienced a sense of being alone in His pain, as most of you do.”

This mystery explanation comforts us that feeling abandoned during difficult times doesn’t mean we are separated from God. It’s only our emotions. It’s natural to ‘feel’ isolated when life throws us unexpected challenges. In those moments, the truth is Father God’s love and presence surround us.

Tiny Wonders

God formed man from the dust of the ground.
—Genesis 2:7

Father’s revelation echoed within me on the historic day of February 1, 2024: “Within the structure of a molecule lies the pattern for all of My creation. I intentionally designed it to be this way. That’s why I hid My secrets of the universe in the little details of life. It’s not the big picture perspective that reveals My secrets, but the hidden details. When you look closer, you will see them for yourself!”

In those words, I received a profound truth that spoke of the shared intricate design and complexity of all that exists. Recently, I discovered that scientists had made a mind-blowing discovery that shakes the foundations of our understanding of the human body.

They found a substance called Laminin, which acts as a ‘glue’ holding our cells together. But that’s not all—upon examining it through an electron microscope, they found it is the shape of a cross! Yes, you read that right—a cross—the very symbol of Christianity!

This discovery is especially significant when we consider Colossians 1:16-17, which says that all things have been created by Jesus Christ, both visible and invisible and that all things are held together in Him. This means that the countless tiny crosses found within our bodies are a testament to the power and presence of Father God, our Creator.

So, the big and flashy events will not always demand our attention. Sometimes, life's small and seemingly insignificant occurrences are worth examining more closely. By looking at life in this new way, you will discover God's tiny wonders for yourself with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Fresh Bread

Where there is no revelatory vision, the people perish.
—Proverbs 29:18

It was the Spring morning of April 1, 2024, when I entered my prayer room. As I sat down, I was surrounded by the serene silence of the early morning hour when a gentle voice cut through the calm. It was Jesus. His presence was as real as the air I breathed. He spoke, and His words etched themselves into the fabric of my being. He said, “When I walk with you, I will reveal hidden mysteries for My people. These revelatory Words or visions will keep My Scripture fresh for them.”

Jesus painted a vivid image for me with His words: “Otherwise, Scripture is treated as stale bread, no longer desirable, and cast aside because it has lost its luster for them. This is how many of My people treat My Word.”

After a brief pause for my reflection, He spoke again, and the profound silence in the air made the Earth itself listen: “So I will keep it fresh by sending My Prophets with revelations to entice My people to partake in feeding their spirits and souls. Like fresh bread out of the oven, revelation's aroma is tantalizing, causing it to be gladly consumed with great joy.”

These words lingered in the air: a promise, a prophecy, and a profound truth. They left an indelible mark on my soul, changing how I perceived the Scriptures. I pray it has done the same for you. Like fresh bread out of the oven, let every life-shifting revelation you read in this book ignite your passion for the Scriptures.

Trinity Explained

There are three that bear witness in Heaven:
The Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are One.
—1 John 5:7

On October 7, 2022, Father God told me, “Before the beginning of time, I was alone and needed nothing. But then, I desired fellowship, much like Adam did when he wanted a partner in his likeness. So, I designed a plan to create humanity. This plan required Me to separate, without diminishing, two aspects of Myself that function as the Word and the Spirit. These two aspects emerged from within Me.

The Word, known as Jesus, My Son, and the Holy Spirit, are both Me, but they operate within specific role boundaries I have set for them. When Jesus said no one is greater than Father, He pointed to this fact. I AM that I AM. Therefore, Jesus and the Holy Spirit are extensions of Myself but have their roles and assigned functions.

While some teach that Jesus and the Holy Spirit have voluntarily taken on subordinate roles to Me, this explanation is simply a human attempt to understand the triune God. Now the truth has been revealed to you that My Son and the Holy Spirit are both fully God, yet distinct in their roles and functions.”

The fact that Father God created humanity shows that He desires a meaningful relationship with us. Even more impressive is that Father God invites you to understand His heart by embracing His invitation to come closer. By exploring revelations like this, you will gain spiritual insights that surpass your current knowledge and understanding, transforming you from the inside out.

God Connection

I love those who love Me.
Those who seek Me diligently will find Me.
—Proverbs 8:17

It's February 28, 2024, and Father God is about to reveal a secret He has kept in His heart for eons. He said, "In ancient times, many people desired to connect with Me but couldn't find the door to My presence. Even when I gave them My laws, they relied more on the written Word than on Me.

You see, it's easier for humans to relate to the Scriptures than to Me, as submission is required as they walk with Me in a relationship. Therefore, it's no surprise that even in your day, many believers consider their Bibles their connection to Me, even though it's not true.

They remain stuck in the letter of the law instead of being in a relationship with the Trinity! I yearn for their hearts to open up and receive Us into themselves."

Father's message isn't a distant hope of His but an urgent call to experience the richness of His presence in our lives. I want you to know that the Trinity's presence is not a distant, unattainable goal. The door is always open, waiting for you to step in. Deepening your connection with Them isn't a duty; it's a path to personal fulfillment and spiritual growth.

Maybe you realize that you don't want to be one of those believers who gets lost in the pages of the Bible. Understanding that the Bible is the launching pad to a real connection with God. Maintaining a balanced perspective rather than an all-or-nothing approach to reading the Bible will help you understand that it is a powerful, necessary tool for your spiritual growth and embracing a deep connection with God.

Seek Wholeheartedly

Seek the Lord your God, and you will find Him if you search for Him with all your heart and all your soul.

—Deuteronomy 4:29

As I waited for Father God during my morning prayer on January 25, 2024, I was suddenly enveloped by His divine presence. It was then that I discerned His whispers to my spirit.

Father spoke with a deep sincerity that immediately captured my full attention. “It’s time for a secret to be revealed. Many people throughout history searched for Me but couldn’t find Me. They heard of My relationship with Abraham but could not connect with Me. They looked for Me in the ways of the world. I can’t be found this way.

The only way to find Me is through the connection of the heart, the doorway to the spirit man. The intellect isn’t a door to Me but only to the world’s esteem and accolades. Many people take this path, but few find Me through their hearts.”

As I absorbed Father’s words, it felt as though He was entrusting me with a sorrow that had weighed upon Him for millennia, a secret yearning to be revealed. He elaborated, “My friend Abraham realized this and sought Me with all his heart and found Me, becoming My trusted friend. Spread this secret to others, and it will open their eyes to the truth.”

Overwhelmed with a profound sense of responsibility, I had a new, additional purpose. Motivated by this divine revelation, I pledged to inspire others on their spiritual trek, following in the footsteps of Abraham.

With this revelation in mind, your commitment to seek Father with all your heart and knowing He is waiting for you with open arms, you will find yourself enveloped in His boundless grace and inspire others to do the same.

Receptive Heart

Draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith.
—Hebrews 10:22

On the morning of March 17, 2024, I found myself in a serene corner of nature within our backyard. As the sun's golden rays pierced through the awakening Spring season, I was surrounded by a symphony of songbirds, the visual beauty of blossoming trees, and fragrant rainbow-colored flowers, all in harmony, as if nature was preparing for a divine encounter, just as I was. With my pen in hand, I was ready to receive a message from Heaven during my devotional time.

Immediately, I discerned a familiar presence—Father God. I was eager to hear what He had to say. He began by quoting a Scripture verse: “Be still and see the salvation of the Lord!” Many will rely on this truth in the days ahead, but their hearts won't be engaged.”

Curious about His statement, I couldn't help but interject by asking, “Father, what do you mean?”

He replied, “This is a requirement for any of My scriptural truths to manifest in a person's life. Without their heart being open and engaged, belief will be relegated to being an intellectual pursuit. This results in the scripture they are leaning on to care for them coming to nothing! That's right, nothing.”

My mind raced as I tried to wrap my thoughts around this new insight Father was sharing.

He continued, “Why? Because they will be left believing that My Word is ineffective for their situation when, in reality, it is due to their faith locked within their closed heart. This is why My Son said, in some cases, ‘Go; your faith has healed you.’ These were when the person relied on their sincere, open heart belief rather than an intellectual pursuit.”

I was in awe of this explanation and asked, “What can I do, Father?”

He answered, “Tell others to open their heart, allowing their faith in Me to manifest what they hope for. The rest will be taken care of when they do.”

Overwhelmed with compassion and urgency, I realized the plight of those whose hearts were closed. They are unaware that faith is not a mere intellectual pursuit but a profound belief in the power and love of Father

God emanating from a receptive heart. It was apparent and pressing that I had a crucial role in setting the record straight.

I needed to share this message with the world to help guide Christians like yourself in facing any challenge with the assurance that everything would be alright through an open heart and unwavering trust in Heavenly Father.

Image Transformation

Be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

—Ephesians 4:23-24

The morning of December 7, 2023, I started just like any other day. I went to my office, sat down at my desk, and opened my Bible to study. But little did I know that this day would be very different.

As I closed my eyes to pray, I heard a voice in my spirit. It was a familiar voice, Father God's, and He said, "This will be different today. There is a topic I have wanted to talk with you about, so brace yourself for the revelation.

Sadly, few make it to Heaven, for it is a holy place, unlike Earth. Yes, My forgiveness flows to those who believe in My Son, but not many are sincere in their faith in Him. I alone know their hearts."

My heart skipped a beat. Father was speaking the truth, which I knew deep down but often failed to understand completely. It was a truth that was both terrifying and humbling.

Father continued, "Those who do not enter Heaven go to Hell for their refinement. This is a necessary process for their eternal life. Without it, they are doomed like the devil, where death swallows them up. I know this sounds harsh, but every soul has the choice during their lifetime to embrace My Son, Jesus, and be transformed into His image like He was transformed into Mine."

I sat there, stunned, mesmerized by the words spoken. The revelation was both enlightening and alarming. It reminded me of the importance of sincere, wholehearted faith in Jesus, of the need to turn towards Jesus with all my heart. That morning, I left my office knowing that my perspective had shifted in my belief about those who believe they are saved but aren't. It was an eye-opener.

This message reminds all believers to examine their hearts and ensure that they genuinely believe in Jesus. Perhaps this revelation has also stirred your soul, and you know it's time to take action and live a life worthy of God's love and grace.

As you venture into the world, remember you're not alone. Jesus is with you every step of the way, offering guidance and protection and showing you how to transform into His likeness and ultimately experience eternal life in Heaven.

Carnality Vs. Holiness

Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God. You are not your own.

—1 Corinthians 6:19

As the sun rose above the horizon on February 19, 2023, I stepped into my prayer room, eager to begin my day. The room's silence was broken by a whisper that echoed in my soul. It was Jesus speaking to me with an insight that would become a guiding light in my life and ministry.

His voice resonated deep within me as He said, "The flesh, or the carnal nature, tends to operate impulsively without divine direction. It is always out of sync, acts prematurely, and is out of season. It rushes ahead in fear of missing out.

On the other hand, patiently waiting means resting by faith and trusting in Father, who knows when to prompt and direct you according to His perfect timing. This is a sign that the flesh is not in control, but the Holy Spirit is!"

I was stunned by the combination of simplicity and profoundness of His words. As I left my prayer room, I understood what it means to trust in God's perfect timing.

Our carnality is like a wild, untamed horse that gallops ahead without any regard for the consequences of its actions. Heedless of the dangers that lie ahead. When the Holy Spirit is in control, He takes the reins of our lives and leads us in the right direction, never leading us astray as we experience peace in the safe hands of a loving master.

Oneness Revealed

They may all be one; even as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You, they may also be one in Us.

—John 17:21

One morning, I was pondering whether there is a divine mystery that explains the deeper meaning of life. So, I asked Jesus, “Do you have any thoughts on that?”

Jesus replied, “In the grand scheme of things, there is a master plan that was set in place before the beginning of time. This plan includes every person who will ever live. Yes, every person, none excluded. However, as enormous as this task may seem, it was easy for Father: He is the Creator, the Source, and the Innovator. He saw this plan complete within His imagination before it became a concept.”

I was curious and asked, “What plan are you talking about?”

Jesus explained, “When the Father determined all was in place, He activated the plan by breathing life into it. Now, this plan was integrated into His mind as a mainframe Neural Network consisting of countless nodes, who are His children.

Everyone is connected within this neural network through varying bandwidths within the Great Architect's mainframe of thought. The database is the Word of God, the Bible. So, thought in this network must be in alignment with the Word. Any thought that does not align with the truth of the Word is considered a rogue viral thought.”

I asked, “What happens if someone has a rogue viral thought?”

“The Holy Spirit is like an anti-virus software that traverses the neural network monitoring all thought. When He detects corrupted ideas outside Scriptural truths, He brings conviction to that person. Then, through their free will repentance, viral thoughts are erased, restoring the individual as an integral receptor of the mainframe’s love output.”

I said, “That’s interesting, but what happens if someone persists in their rebellious thoughts?”

Jesus replied, “The Neural Network has very stringent requirements for those who want to remain connected. If the person persists in their rebellious thoughts, it typically leads to their rejection of the mainframe’s environment. They could be coded out. The choice is theirs because free will is a gift. When a person rejects the mainframe, no longer wanting to be a part of it, they become disconnected, casting themselves out of this loving environment of light into deep darkness.”

I exclaimed, “That’s quite a sobering thought. But what about those who remain aligned with Scriptural truths?”

“Those that remain aligned with Scriptural truths through the mind of Christ within them stay integrated, and as they spiritually grow, their bandwidth increases. They eventually transform to be like Jesus—one with the Father, Creator of all things!”

Oneness With Father

Your Creator will be your husband;
His name is the Lord of Heaven’s Armies!
He is your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel,
the God of all the Earth.
—Isaiah 54:5

The veil between Heaven and Earth was lifted during my prayer time on January 5, 2023. In a moment of God's grace, the supernatural became tangible. I was blessed with an experience of unparalleled wonder.

Father called out to me, "Come up here." Instantly, I was in the Spirit, taken to a place beyond time and space, a realm pulsating with light and life, a cloud-like substance that defied all description. The question, "What is this place?" echoed in me as I stood in awe of the majesty that enveloped me. It was unlike any I had ever visited in Heaven, including the ethereal environment of the Angelic Realm.

So, I asked, "Where am I, Father?" He responded, "You're in My mind! You are here because you trust Me. I am Spirit, without form or a body like My Son. Those who come to Me must come in spirit, not their intellect.

I am not a man, so believe Me, I don't lie. I will share more with you, but the key today is I AM SPIRIT! For you are a daughter, who's come home! Since you were born, I have longed for this day when you are rejoined and immersed in Me, where no distinctions separate us, like My Son in Oneness with Me!

Oneness has its own required necessities of honor, humility, and honesty. Without these attributes, the person experiencing oneness will fall prey to dishonor, pride, and lying, which are unwanted attributes of those who are of this world.

But we will now set matters straight of those concerns in My heart. They will be rectified to the world through your writing. Others will read, then know, and have no excuses for their condition; it will all be revealed.

Well done, My daughter, welcome home!" Father said, "Now, I will marry you to Myself!"

I suddenly shifted into the spiritual realm as I was about to reply. There, I witnessed my body in a serene suspension, with my eyes closed, reclining peacefully in Father's mind. At that moment, I realized that my body was no longer my identity or home. I was back in my original home, within Father God, united with Him in a perfect and harmonious Oneness. This union, this divine embrace, not only transformed me but, in the days that followed, allowed me to retain my individuality while becoming more like Jesus Christ, a testament to the transformative power of the oneness experience.

This type of union is called a mystical marriage, the ultimate bond between the Father God and His beloved child. It transcends all Earthly limitations and elevates the believer's spirit to the highest realms of the Christian spiritual experience.

My experience is not unique, as any Christian who follows in Jesus' footsteps can achieve this connection with Father God by seeking His face and trusting Him. The divine connection, this profound union, is not reserved for a select few but is available to all who have a close relationship with Jesus Christ, are filled with the Holy Spirit, and open their hearts to the possibility of achieving Oneness with Father God. This is a promise for all believers, a testament to God's love and grace.

Two Paths

God guides me in the right path of righteousness for His name's sake.

—Psalm 23:3

The house was silent on February 21, 2024, during my early morning prayer as I closed my eyes to pray. In the stillness, I recognized the sweet, gentle voice of the Holy Spirit saying, "Good morning." I opened my eyes and quickly grabbed my scribing pen to document what He would say.

"The right way," He said. "What does this mean? For many, the right way is defined by their belief system. However, there is a way that seems right to a person, but it leads to death. The right way, seen through God's perspective, produces abundant spiritual life.

Once again, if a believer claims to be walking on God's path but the person is still the one defining their boundaries and freedoms of choice resting in Him, this is another way of looking at the path that leads to death. The only correct path is the one God defines and directs, requiring dependence on Him and His strength to cross the finish line as an overcoming victor.

So, what is the dilemma of many? How can they please God and still have their cake and eat it, too? This is a quandary for the believer. It's rarely sorted out properly by the person, so a Christian mentor or pastor needs to be included in this process of walking it out. Having another person act in a supportive role helps keep the believer walking on the narrow path of transformation into reflecting Jesus.

When issues become triggered on the way, the spiritually mature support person will play a vital role as part of the clean-up crew. It will not be their job to make something happen in the mentees' lives but to help guide them when questions arise. Some questions are valid, and others are distractions. Discerning between the two requires spiritual maturity, and this is when the clean-up crew can be of great assistance to the believer aspiring for consecration, purification, and sanctification. This is a mouthful, but it clearly describes the goal of God's narrow path for every believer."

I received more clarity on this topic thanks to the Holy Spirit's explanation. Holiness sets us apart and guides us toward a deeper understanding of how to live a life that is pleasing to God. It isn't something we achieve through our efforts earned by good works or the purity of our intentions. Instead, it is a gift from our heavenly Father to His children. This precious gift is not given to us based on our merit or worth but is instead a reflection of our relationship connection with the Trinity.

So, how can we please God and still enjoy life? This can be a challenging question. The idea of the "right way" can mean different things to different people. However, the clear choice is to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, who enjoyed abundant life within the boundaries of holy living as He trusted and depended on Father God for everything.

Superstition Isn't Faith

Faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen.

By faith, we understand that the Word of God has framed the universe so that what is seen has not been made out of visible things.

—Hebrews 11:1-3

The morning of April 12, 2024, dawned with vibrant colors across the horizon, heralding the sunrise. I went to the prayer room, following my daily communion with God. The familiar presence of the Holy Spirit filled the room as the first light filtered through the windows. Then, Father's voice resonated with a clarity that cut through the silence of my room.

"Superstition is not faith!" Father declared. "For it is an aspect of witchcraft that has infiltrated the church. In these last days, it is more rampant in My people than ever before because technology has spread this concept via social media."

I was captivated by the seriousness of His words as the room seemed to pulse with their frequency.

"It's like a big 'think tank' where amalgams are produced to create a mixture of Scripture and evil thinking. This produces contaminated faith, which depends more on the majority of voices than the minority. My people's perspective is to be one of holiness and discerning between good and evil, but being compromised, they don't discern it."

I felt a weight on my heart as the magnitude of His message pressed on me. "But Father," I ventured, my voice barely above a whisper in honor of Him, "how do we restore true faith among Your people?"

Father's presence seemed to draw closer, enveloping me in a warmth that reassured my heart. "I use My Prophets to set the record straight, for they dwell with Me uncompromised. You, My daughter, are one of them."

Immediately, a silence fell, profound and full of unspoken promise. I rose with a newfound resolve coursing through me. With Father's guidance, I would stand against the evil tide, like a lighthouse for genuine faith in the spiritual battle between superstition and belief in God.

Many believe that certain spoken words and objects possess a mystical energy called superstition. People seek to control and make sense of their chaotic lives, and superstition explains good or bad luck that can stick to you like a curse.

However, there is hope in this darkness. The Scriptures describe a world governed by God's sovereign hand and not by chance. According to the Bible, everything is under God's watchful eye. He is the Creator of destiny and the Master of fate.

In this divine orchestration, superstition has no place. Fear and uncertainty fade away in the light of this profound truth. Embracing this revelation invites us to step out of any superstition and into the light of God's sovereignty, where every breath and every heartbeat is evidence of the meticulous care of our Creator. In this truth, remain in your unshakable faith.

Bittersweet Betrayal

Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved,
but give place to God's wrath.
For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to Me;
I will repay, says the Lord."
—Romans 12:19

During meditation on scripture the morning of January 19, 2024, Father spoke to me about a topic that, at first glance, troubled my soul. However, His words also sparked a newfound hope within me.

Father said, "I have a secret to share with you. When someone betrays you, it presents an opportunity for you to be advanced in My Kingdom. Your submission to Me by not defending yourself contradicts what the world expects from you, but My ways are not their ways.

So, when you feel like you've reached the end of your rope, turn to Me. This is the time when miracles happen! I will provide a miracle to reveal My Glory through your life. The secret to overcoming betrayal challenges is to rest in Me."

This principle was so powerful. I knew I had been given a gift that would help me victoriously face these types of challenges with 'Godfidence' similar to Jesus after He was arrested and stood before His accusers. He was silent, presenting no defense as He trusted Father, and now so will you! So, trust in Jesus when faced with betrayal, even when the world expects you to fight back, for true strength is resting in His arms: Let all those who take refuge in God rejoice. Let them always shout for joy because You defend them. —Psalm 5:11

True Freedom

We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.
—1 John 5:19

On the blessed morning of March 6, 2024, something remarkable happened. While praying, I received a thought-provoking message that helped me know the truth and reject the false. Father said, “Liberty is a word with many connotations. However, in My Kingdom, it means servitude, not individualism.

The world’s definition of liberty is the opposite of what I intended. It has perverted the intent of freedom to represent a right to indulge one’s carnal desires rather than controlling them.

Liberty through My Son calls people to surrender personal rights and embrace serving all. However, many in the world have been corrupted by a perverse application of this freedom as they proclaim the mantra: ‘Free to be me!’ Unfortunately, this focus leads them to destruction and, eventually, death, with a destiny of hell.

Satan has convinced many that this liberty is for attaining their personal ‘god-actualization.’ They believe their goal is to elevate themselves to the highest pinnacle possible, godhood. But this is a dead-end road contradicting the lies Satan has fed them.”

These words were a wake-up call for me to see the world’s version of freedom for what it truly is and to surrender my rights by fully embracing servitude to Jesus. I knew that true freedom lies in serving others and living a life free from the shackles of selfishness, but I had not thought it out as Father presented it.

What a powerful reminder to us all that liberty is not about being free to indulge in our desires but about surrendering ourselves to the higher purpose of serving Jesus.

Heaven Is Your Destiny

Whosoever was not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

—Revelation 20:15

During my prayer time on the chilly winter morning of February 27, 2024, Father God communicated a spiritual explanation I had wondered about for years.

He said, “The search for Me has always been a journey filled with obstacles and challenges. In the past, many seekers stumbled upon the enemy of their soul, who disguised himself as the answer to their prayers. His seductive voice was so convincing that they believed he was what they had been looking for.”

“Wait, are you talking about Satan?” I asked.

Father answered, “Yes, his strategy was a clever one. He lured them with worldly pleasures, tempting them with promises of power and wealth. And in exchange, they gave him their souls, never to have possession of them again.

Even in modern times, this deception remains successful, as people continue to fall into Satan’s trap. They trade their souls for temporary pleasures, not realizing the actual cost of their actions. This deception has existed since ancient times, when the Watchers, the fallen Angels, learned about human carnal appetites. If these appetites are not directed and surrendered to Jesus, they lead people down a path of destruction, eventually costing them their lives.”

I exclaimed, “That’s terrible! Is there no way to avoid his traps?”

“Recognizing Satan’s traps is essential for every person on Earth,” answered Father. “Sadly, most people prefer to engage in them rather than avoid or fight them off. Thankfully, the Holy Spirit is there to help individuals resist such temptations. He brings them a love that they can experience for themselves and a peace that the world cannot provide. Once people engage with the Holy Spirit, most will eventually receive Jesus and follow in His footsteps.”

“So, what happens to those who reject Him?” I asked.

“Hard-core followers of other belief systems often reject the Holy Spirit, refusing to acknowledge His presence in their lives,” explained Father. “There is no forgiveness for these people, as they know in their hearts that they have rejected the truth. Instead, they choose to believe and tell others: ‘Go to hell with me, and we will continue to party there!’”

“That’s so sad. What can we do to avoid falling into Satan’s traps?” I questioned.

Father replied with compassion in His voice, “In a world filled with darkness and deception, it is up to each individual to choose their path. Will they succumb to the enemy’s seductive voice or follow the light of the Holy Spirit? The choice is theirs, but the consequences are eternal.”

It’s common knowledge that the enemy of our souls is relentless. He seeks to deceive at every turn, but the Holy Spirit is there to guide and help to resist temptations. Following in Jesus’ footsteps and engaging with the Holy Spirit helps avoid Satan’s traps and walk boldly toward a destiny of eternal life in Heaven.

Escape Plan

Jesus will descend from Heaven with a shout,
with the voice of the Archangel, and with God’s trumpet.
The dead in Christ will rise first, then we who are alive, and who are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.

—1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

One momentous morning on February 7, 2024, the Holy Spirit spoke to my spirit while I waited for Jesus. He compassionately asked, “What will you do when all is dark and light is no more? Will you turn to the left, where there is no hope, or will you go to the right, where death awaits you?”

After God’s presence leaves the Earth, no option will appear to be a good choice. Then, your portion will be the only dilemma, with no resolve in sight. However, if you choose whom you will serve today, you will be included in Heaven’s escape plan.

Yes, you heard me right. An escape route is available, but your choices now determine if you will be included in that catching away. So, what are the requirements for inclusion in this group?

First, Jesus is the object of your affection. Second, you live to fulfill His commands. Third, you love others as you want to be loved. Fourth, you honor Father God with your reverence for Him. If you consistently do all these, rest assured that you are included in Heaven's escape plan.

I was both relieved and shaken by this message. It was a tall order, and I questioned whether I could consistently accomplish these as I don't trust my heart! This message is a wake-up call, a warning, and, at the same time, a ray of hope. I must make the right choices to be included in Heaven's escape plan.

The Holy Spirit's message may seem daunting, but it holds a powerful message of hope and redemption. In the future, in a world full of darkness, hopelessness, and uncertainty, it will be easy to lose sight of what truly matters.

But the truth is that consciously choosing to love and serve Jesus leads to our goal. We become part of an excellent plan that promises a way out of the darkness and into the light. So, embrace this opportunity by determining to participate in Heaven's escape plan.

Unshakable Faith

Keep your faith, leaning entirely on God with absolute trust and confidence in His guidance, and have a good conscience, for some people have rejected their spiritual compass and have made a shipwreck of their faith.

—1 Timothy 18:19

As the sun's rays shone through the window on April 6, 2024, illuminating my prayer sanctuary with a heavenly glow, I immersed myself in a serene reflection on God. Despite the chaos of the outside world, where news of the persecution of Christians has unfortunately become more prevalent, I was grateful for this moment of calm that I felt was outside the reach of the Last Days that I live in.

Aware of the possibility that persecution may one day come my way, my heart reached out in sincere prayer, asking for strength and guidance. “Father, in these times of escalating Christian oppression, please bless me and those being persecuted with the courage and unwavering faith to stand firm in the face of adversity,” I earnestly implored.

To my delight, Father God responded with a powerful message that filled my soul, “As a tree sways in the blowing of the wind, so do My people in the face of persecution. When simple accusations are made against them, they often waver on their Kingdom principles rather than standing firm in their faith.”

I listened intently to God’s perspective, understanding the importance of His explanation. “Father, I see this happening around me. How can I and others stay strong in our faith amidst the storms of life?” I asked, seeking His wisdom.

Father’s response came not as a whisper but as a profound truth, enveloping my soul. He revealed, “The faith that pleases Me is the type that is not infiltrated by what the world says but looks to Me only for their reassurance.”

Driven by my thirst for divine wisdom, I asked, “Teach me, then, to fix my gaze upon You, to remain undeterred by the storms of persecution swirling around me.”

He then cautioned, “If you don’t resolve to keep your focus on Me, the storms of life will cause your faith to become shipwrecked.”

My heart raced at the thought of becoming shipwrecked. No, I thought to myself. Not the outcome I want for my life. The contemplative pause ended as Father said, “This is an outcome that grieves My heart.”

This guidance graciously instilled in me a desire to emulate the steadfast oak, unyielding in faith, regardless of the trials ahead. I added, “You have answered my questioning heart and touched my soul. I want to be unwavering in my faith, never to grieve Your heart.”

Emerging from my place of prayer, I stepped back into the world, a bearer of this sacred message. With a heart fortified by divine counsel, I was committed to spreading our sacred exchange so that others could pursue and possess unshakable faith.

Tribulation Remnant

After the Tribulation, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in the Heavens will be shaken.

Then, they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.

—Mark 13:24-26

On the cold rainy morning of February 25, 2024, I was meditating on scripture in my prayer room with a hot cup of tea when I heard Father's familiar voice.

He said, "In the days ahead, when all hell breaks loose upon the Earth, there will be those who belong to Me who will survive the tribulation period, for I will hide them under the shelter of My wing. Since the beginning of time, these have been chosen to remain on Earth to usher in My Son's return.

They are resilient ones who have learned to stand in Me even when all else has run from Me. Could you be the one chosen to remain? Time will tell. In the meantime, reach out to others with My Words to encourage them in the days ahead."

As I listened, I felt a mix of trepidation and excitement. The thought of being one of the chosen ones to survive the coming storm and usher in Christ's return was terrifying and exhilarating. I knew I had to prepare for whatever lay ahead.

The coming tribulation would be a time of darkness and despair, and it would be up to us who believed in Him to be a light in the darkness. Even as I contemplated my fate, Father's voice urged me to reach out to others with His words to encourage them in the days ahead.

I left my prayer room feeling urgent about sharing Father's message with others. The days ahead would be difficult, but there was hope for those who belonged to Him. So I began to reach out to others, sharing Father's words of encouragement and hope.

I knew that these were the days when we had to stand firm in our faith, no matter what happened. Maybe we have been chosen to remain, and if so, our mission is to be prepared to survive the Tribulation and usher in the return of King Jesus.

Let us take heart and hold fast to our faith. Even in the darkest times, we can trust unwaveringly in the shelter of His wing. This trust, this unwavering belief, will carry us through the tribulations we face.

Tribulation Overcomer

In the world, you shall have tribulation.
But be of good courage. I have overcome the world.
—John 16:33

On that serene Spring morning of March 19, 2024, I was blessed to hear a familiar, loving voice as I poured out my heart in prayer. It was a voice I knew well that brought me comfort and strength. It was the voice of Jesus, speaking directly to me.

“Tell others in the days ahead,” He said, “I will hold their hand as they pass through the waters of Tribulation. I know how to navigate and overcome these challenges by faith in Father.”

I felt a sense of peace wash over my soul. Yet, a question burned within my spirit. “But Lord,” I asked, “how can they possibly overcome such great challenges?”

“Just look at My life,” He replied, “and you will see the many challenges I faced that appeared hopeless, but through the Holy Spirit in Me, I overcame, and so will they.”

His words were not just comforting. They were a promise.

As I meditated on this Word from Jesus in my search for a comforting sentiment to share with you, the verses found in Romans 8:37-38 came to mind: In all these things we are more than conquerors, through Him Who loved us, for I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

So, let’s hold on to this message of hope and carry it with us as we navigate the trials of life as Jesus holds our hand.

Historic Celebration

Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.
—Revelation 19:9

It was a day much like any other, or so it seemed. But on February 23, 2024, as I began to pray, I asked Father the question weighing on my spirit: “What’s on your heart today?” He answered by saying, “The turmoil that is coming. Nothing in Earth’s history contains the severity of human suffering that this will bring.

Many will abandon Me, believing I’ve abandoned them. If they would look at the situation through the eyes of faith as My Son did, they would understand that this time of turmoil is for their purification as My Son’s Bride. Without this purification, they would not be prepared for the Wedding or the Supper of the Lamb. They will be escorted out of the celebration and relegated to a level in Heaven where the purification they refused to experience on Earth will be their lot in Heaven.

Tell them this for Me. Many are unaware that their decisions now impact their eternal experience. They see salvation as a ‘Carte Blanche,’ a general overriding condition giving them the authority to enter Heaven. However, this isn’t true.

Those who fulfill their divine destiny trust and obey My choices for them, regardless of the personal cost involved. These are the ones ready to join in the Wedding Supper of the Lamb, and they have been invited to attend.”

As you reflect on Father’s words, let them spark a Holy Spirit blaze within you by embracing every challenge as an opportunity for spiritual growth. The Wedding Supper of the Lamb is just around the corner—a feast of joy and celebration like no other!

HEAVENLY HOME

In my Father's house, there are many rooms.
If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again and will take you to Myself, that where I am, you may be also.
—John 14:2

On the beautiful sunlit morning of August 14, 2023, suddenly, during my prayers, I heard the familiar voice within my spirit. It was Jesus. The words that He shared with me were more than just a mere revelation. As I listened, it was as if time stood still, and the world around me faded away.

Jesus said, “When I spoke of leaving to prepare a place for those who belong to Me, I was referring to building up Heaven that Father had created. Before My crucifixion and ascension, it was an undeveloped habitation.” As Jesus spoke, I listened with bated breath as His words filled me with wonder. The words He shared were more than just a revelation; they were a new understanding of Heaven's history.

Then something miraculous happened; He continued by saying, “When I released those who had died in faith and were waiting in paradise to be redeemed, they ascended with Me and helped Me develop Heaven to be what it is today—a home prepared for My Bride.”

The truth of His words left me speechless. I was amazed at the thought of Heaven being developed by the Cloud of Witness Saints, who transitioned to Heaven before us. Such an expanded understanding of those who died but are alive in Heaven confirms what I've come to learn about these Saints who visit me to share their wisdom.

So, now, as you look to Heaven, you can imagine what is to come – just as Heaven was transformed, so shall you be prepared as God's holy dwelling place. The anticipation of renewal in your life is mind-boggling!

By holding onto your faith in Jesus and trusting in the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, you can be transformed into a new creation. Your heart will be filled with new hope and a new purpose as you are prepared to dwell eternally in the Heavenly home Jesus has provided you, His Bride.

So, lift your eyes to your Heavenly home and be excited about what will come. You are being transformed and prepared for a glorious future beyond your wildest dreams.

Humble Heart

Clothe yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another;
for God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.

—1 Peter 5:5

On the beautiful autumn morning of October 17, 2019, when the leaves began to be painted with vibrant colors, a refreshing crispness filled the air, evidence that the Fall season had officially arrived.

I retreated to my office when Jesus called to me and said the familiar phrase, “Come up here.” Instantly, I was in the Spirit and whisked away to His Heavenly throne room to stand before Him. Jesus stood up and descended from His throne. I was overcome with reverence and knelt before Him. As I bowed, I realized I had become adorned in a radiant white gown covered in sparkling diamonds.

As Jesus looked into my eyes with eyes of love, He spoke words that would shift my life for the better. “I grace you with humility,” He said, placing His hand on my left shoulder. “Not as the world sees it, but as Father defines it. To see yourself as a servant to all as the purpose of your life. Now, you may go your way.”

And just like that, I returned home to process what happened. It was another divine encounter that left an indelible mark on my soul and added to the transformational process of becoming a prepared Bride.

This divine encounter is a powerful testament to the transformative nature of a close connection with Jesus. It serves as a reminder that you possess the potential to achieve all He holds in His heart for you as a servant to all. You approach each day with humility, kindness, and compassion in fulfilling all the beautiful plans Jesus has for your life!

Sacred Dream

Daniel had a dream and visions of his head on his bed.
Then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters.
—Daniel 7:1

In the early hours of September 26, 2022, I woke up from a dream that left me speechless. It was a vivid vision gifted to me by Jesus Himself.

The dream began when I stood on the sidewalk before a magnificent theatre house. As I entered, I was awe-struck by its adornment of white marble floors, intricately hand-carved wood covered in gold gilt, and red velvet security ropes to section off the lobby area. The grandeur was breathtaking, and I discovered I was not alone. Many others were waiting in the lobby area, just like me.

The large French doors to the theatre flung open, and a group of exquisitely formally dressed women and men entered the room. I watched in amazement as a beautiful blonde woman with blue eyes and a sparkling diamond tiara in her updo emerged from the group and approached the waiting group. She wore a sparkling, floor-length gown, white opera gloves, and a mink coat. Looking at her, I noticed she was carrying a delicate crystal tray resting on both palms. In the tray, there appeared to be something like an engraved card.

The crowd became silent as she walked thirty feet from the front door to the waiting area where I was. Everyone knew that whatever she carried was Heavenly, and everyone silently hoped they were the recipient. Then I realized she was coming to present the card to me. I placed my glass of water on the nearest table and waited as she approached me with direct eye contact and an engaging smile.

As the card's recipient, I accepted it from her delicate hands. But I woke up before reading what was engraved on it. The dream was so vivid that I sensed the Holy Spirit's presence as I lay in bed. This was confirmation to me that it was a message from God. I also knew the dream had a deeper meaning but couldn't decipher it.

Until Jesus explained it as His soft voice resonated within my spirit, "This morning is one you will not forget in the days ahead," He said. "You received your invitation to be with Me. It is where you belong—the Earth is behind you, and Heaven is now your reality. Join Me here and fulfill the rest of what I have asked of you as you live in Heaven. For such a time as this were you born, My sweet Kathleen."

Dreams from God are more than just fleeting thoughts during sleep. They are inspired messages carrying divine guidance and wisdom, capable of transforming your life beyond imagination.

By paying close attention to your dreams and seeking interpretation through the Holy Spirit, you can unlock keys of wisdom to assist you in understanding and fulfilling your God-given destiny.

Renewed Mind

Be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, who is in the likeness of God.

—Ephesians 4:23-24

During my devotional time on October 11, 2022, in the morning, I was engaged in intense prayer when I discerned the whisper of Father God's loving and gentle voice.

He said, "You are catching on. Keep pressing in! You will arrive at your destination. It is your destiny to be with Me now, not waiting for your body to die. Your body isn't your limitation. Your mind is the seat of belief. Clear your mind of limiting beliefs and replace them with how Jesus thinks—supernaturally.

You are a citizen of the unseen realm, for it is spiritual. The laws of this reality do not apply there. For the world's dimension is only a construct. The Heavenly realm is the real deal, the true reality from which constructs are created or, as you say, imagined. Stand your ground and keep pressing forward in this vein of thinking. The door will be opened for you to enter.”

Father gave me a glimpse of something incredible that most people never have the opportunity to comprehend. About six months later, during my morning prayer, the door Father referred to was opened for me to enter. Hallelujah!

So, I encourage you to pray earnestly in pursuit of the One your soul loves. Be determined to continue on your spiritual journey with fervent prayer. Your efforts will not be in vain as you draw closer to fulfilling your heart's greatest desire—you, too, will arrive at your divine destination!

Effective Prayer

If anyone sins, we have an Intercessor with the Father, Jesus Christ the anointed, the righteous.

—1 John 2:1

Once again, on March 9, 2020, I was in a state of focused waiting on God when I was transported to Heaven into the Holy of Holies in the Tabernacle. The ethereal splendor there was breathtaking, and I was drawn to a sight of unparalleled sanctity: Jesus, our holy High Priest, engaged in fervent prayer.

I watched Jesus kneel in humble adoration of Father God before the awe-inspiring, original Ark of the Covenant, crafted from the purest solid gold and gleaming with a divine resplendence. Its Mercy Seat, a symbol of God's unfathomable grace, reflected Christ's radiant light. I could feel holiness emanating from Him, and my heart was filled with gratitude and unspeakable joy to be a witness of this very private interaction.

As Jesus prayed, His arms were raised upward in profound honor and submission to Father God, embodying the essence of devout worship and intercession. His prayer was so intense and passionate that it transcended mere language as tears streamed down His face. He was interceding for a person for whom He cared deeply. This is the same love He has for us all.

When His prayer reached its culmination, Jesus rose gracefully as He gathered Himself and wiped the tears from His face. Then, His divine countenance turned towards me. I will never forget the infinite love that pierced the core of my being as His eyes met mine and a gentle smile graced His lips. His presence enveloped me in an indescribable peace as He spoke, “Kathleen when you pray, kneel before Father. Your heart will follow. Reverence is key.”

His words were so simple yet profound, and they reverberated through the very fabric of my being, imparting a holy wisdom that transcended my earthly understanding. In that divine encounter, I was given a sacred insight into the heart of true prayer—a prayer that emanates from a place of deep reverence and heartfelt devotion to the Almighty is effective. Instantly, I was back in my house.

I am so grateful for this incredible experience and look forward to the day I can share it with you. I hope it gives you the spiritual insight of approaching Father God with reverence and devotion; your prayers will be heard clearly.

Over the years, I have experienced many joys and trials, so on November 12, 2023, I received another transformative principle from Father. His voice, a gentle yet powerful force, pierced the veil of my understanding, revealing a profound and transformative truth. “Compassion is the catalyst when praying for others,” He uttered, His words painting the air with the hues of divine insight. “Without it, your intellect will be praying, not your heart. When your heart is engaged, it is your spirit man interceding, not your carnal flesh.”

This revelation illuminated my soul with its radiant truth. “Prayers originating from carnality will not be heard or answered. They are dark, not born of My light and love,” Father continued His voice, a beacon in the darkness, guiding me toward more of His revelatory truth. “Therefore, for your prayers to be effective, shift into compassion where the Spirit dwells. This is achieved through sincere worship of Me before you begin praying.”

As I absorbed these words, I envisioned heartfelt worship, creating an environment that attracted Angels and dispelled demons. I yearned to dwell in this sacred space, embrace the divine mandate, and become a vessel to the world of His light and love. I invite you to embrace these sacred principles to fulfill your destiny.

Navigating Darkness

In the last days, dark and difficult times will come.
—2 Timothy 3:1

During the late afternoon of March 21, 2024, within my home, the divine presence of Father manifested, attracting my attention as the sun began to set and the world started to descend into darkness. So, I grabbed my pen to document what He would share.

Father said, “When the day arrives that all turns dark, it will be necessary for My people to connect with Me through their spirit, not just their intellect. That’s why I emphasize this topic so much. I want them to be ready when darkness becomes a worldwide reality. It won’t be long before this happens, so encourage them to transition from their intellect to their heart, where their spirit resides. This will help them and their families navigate a dark world effectively and victoriously.”

In essence, this message is clear. As the world plunges into darkness, people must rely on more than just their minds to find God’s light. This means shifting our focus from analyzing and understanding with our mind to discerning and experiencing with our spirit. He emphasizes our crucial role in transitioning from our intellect to our hearts, where our spirits reside. This is a call to action to prepare.

Additionally, as students of Bible Prophecy, we are privileged to have been given a ‘heads-up’ on what the future holds. We recognize that exciting and challenging times are ahead, but with the Holy Spirit’s guidance and our preparation, we are confident that we will be ready to face whatever comes our way.

Our faith is more important than ever, and we will draw strength from Jesus as we prepare ourselves for the future. We understand that as we live through the Last Days, we will be in a great battle between good and evil. However, with God on our side, we have nothing to fear, just as Psalm 112:7-8 declares: “The righteous will be remembered forever. He will not be afraid of evil news. His heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord. His heart is established.”

So, we can confront the difficulties ahead with courage and faith, knowing we are part of something bigger than ourselves. Our unwavering faith will inspire and encourage those around us, and we will emerge victorious, leaving a legacy for those who will follow in our footsteps.

Spiritual Victory

The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep God’s commandments and hold Jesus’ testimony.
—Revelation 12:17

Something supernatural happened on the beautiful afternoon of November 30, 2022. The Heavens opened, and I saw a glorious Archangel valiantly battling a dark horde of demons in the second Heaven. It was truly breathtaking. I felt a strong urge to read Revelation 12:7-17, which tells the story of the Archangel Michael and his Angels fighting against Satan and ultimately casting him out of Heaven, throwing him to Earth. This event sets the stage for Satan to make war with God’s children, but fear not, for we are never alone.

After reading the scriptures, Father spoke to me and said, “The time has come for this prophecy to be fulfilled. All of this must transpire for My Son’s return to take place. What you observed in the sky, men called a meteor shower, but it was devils being kicked out of the second Heaven and falling to Earth. They are now relegated to the Earthly realm, as Revelation 12 says.

You will soon see the rest of this prophecy manifest on Earth. Your time has come to be raised up for My Kingdom purposes. Do not hold back as the Holy Spirit leads you. Victory is yours. The army of Angels assigned to you will join you on My behalf.”

So, let’s intercede for God’s Kingdom, battling against the forces of darkness, knowing that we will not be defeated. With Father God and the Angel Army on our side, we can accomplish anything and everything. Let us embrace the ‘dunamis fire’ of the Holy Spirit and walk boldly into our destinies.

Great Shaking

Immediately after the suffering of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light,
the stars will fall from the sky,
and the powers of the Heavens will be shaken.

—Matthew 24:29

As I settled into my morning prayer on February 18, 2024, anticipation filled the air. I always approach this sacred time with an open heart and mind, never knowing what divine message I might receive. Today was no different as I prepared to receive a message from Heaven.

And then, Father spoke. “My children groan as they suffer under the hands of those who have enslaved them. They cry out to Me day and night to free them, but the time isn’t right. All must take place before My Son returns.”

His words carried a weight that I could feel in the depths of my being. I leaned in, my heart racing with awe and trepidation.

“Then it will be ‘game on!’” Father thundered. “Heaven and Earth will shake under My hand as I usher in My Son’s righteous reign. Then, the chains of bondage will be shattered! Under His reign, the lion will lay down with the lamb, and peace will flow like a river. It’s coming soon!”

I was utterly speechless, my soul pierced by the weight of the Almighty's words. His promise surged through me, a powerful current of certainty. I was convinced that this momentous event was on the horizon and would bear witness to it.

King's Return

Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with Me, to repay to each man according to his work.
I am the Alpha and the Omega.
—Revelation 22:12-13

On the morning of February 8, 2024, I discerned the Heavenly Father wanted me to come to the prayer room for a scribing session. Without hesitation, I went there, sat at my desk, and picked up my pen. “Good morning, Father,” I greeted Him, then asked, “What’s on your heart today?”

The Father’s voice was excited: “My Son’s return! It’s not an event that can be taken lightly. It is the defining moment of a new paradigm shift on the Earth.”

As I listened, I wrote down His words, my heart beating with anticipation, “What do you mean, Father?” I asked eagerly

“He is ushering in My Kingdom’s rule,” Father explained. “No one will be able to stand before Him and not bend their knee to His authority, power, and holiness. He is the King of kings and Lord of lords!”

As I heard this, I felt a surge of excitement. “What should I do to prepare?” I asked.

Father’s answer was urgent and heartfelt. “My people must examine their hearts now to be prepared and counted worthy to receive the rewards He will bring,” Father said with authority.

I nodded in agreement. “I understand, Father. There’s no time to waste. I want to be ready to meet King Jesus when He arrives.” Will you join me in preparing?

Reckoning Day

Behold, He [King Jesus] comes with clouds.
And every eye shall see Him.
—Revelation 1:7

It was a cold winter's morning on December 19, 2023, when an unexpected but welcomed familiar voice broke the room's silence. I quickly grabbed my pen and tablet, ready to jot down anything that may be shared with me. The voice was warm, exuding a love I had come to know; it was Father.

Then He announced, "I will send My Son when the time is right. When He arrives, My glory will cover the Earth, and the spiritual eye of all inhabitants will be opened miraculously to see His glorious return. He will then sort out those who will become citizens of My Kingdom on Earth and those who will become citizens of Hell along with Satan."

My heart began to race as I listened intently to this new revelation. "This separation will provide the best environment for those remaining on Earth to transform into the King who rules over them with My love," Father continued. "Those who reject this transformation will spend time in hell for their purification. Only then will they have another opportunity to choose their eternal destination. Believe it or not, there will still be those who will reject My Son."

I sat there, stunned by what I had just heard. The weight of this new insight is now on my shoulders. "I understand," I said. "I will do everything I can to share this concept with others through my writing."

And with that, Father's presence left, bringing back the room's silence, leaving me alone with my thoughts, contemplating the new understanding I had been blessed with.

Our physical eyes have limitations, as they can only see objects within their visual capacity. However, the spiritual eye has no limitations and can see beyond time and distance. Therefore, it will be a miraculous event when every person on Earth will see with spiritual vision the second coming of King Jesus!

Heaven's Welcome

God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore.
—Revelation 21:4

What an incredible Spring day it was on April 8, 2024. The sun rose magnificently, painting the sky in coral and aqua hues. As I entered my prayer room, I felt the familiar warmth of the Holy Spirit enveloping me. I could feel anticipation filling the room.

Without thinking, my hand reached for my pen – an old, trusty companion with me through countless journal entries. But today was different, and I knew it. The room was filled with a sacred silence as I poised my pen above the paper, ready to record something extraordinary.

And then, I heard His voice. It resonated within my soul, and I knew the Lord was speaking to me. He said, “When you pass through the waters of death, you will emerge with a new, holy perspective because the lens of the world has been washed away. You will enter My holy land, where Angels will escort you to the River of Living Water. Here, you will experience another baptism that will wash away all the sorrows, pains, and tears you experienced in the world. After this cleansing, all your memories of loved ones will be viewed only in a positive light. Your journey in heaven has just begun.”

A deep peace settled in my heart as I wrote down these words. I knew this message confirmed God's promises, and I look forward to experiencing them in Heaven.

When the time comes for you to leave this Earth and transition to Heaven, you will leave behind all the sadness, physical trauma, and tears. You will have a fresh start, and when you reunite with your loved ones, you will see that they have been freed from all the personal issues they had while living on Earth. Isn't that amazing?

May this message encourage your soul and stay with you until you experience the crystal-clear Living Water in Heaven. You have so much to look forward to! Therefore, allow the promise of your future blissful and glorious life to fuel every moment you spend on Earth as it brings you one step closer to the joy waiting for you in Heaven.

MY PRAYER FOR YOU

“Heavenly Father, I pray that You pour out Your boundless mercy, grace, and love on this dear one. As she seeks to deepen her relationship with You, may You empower her with more of the Holy Spirit. May she be a fearless and passionate spiritual warrior, sharing the Gospel with boldness and rejecting lukewarm faith. May she stand firmly on the rock-solid foundation of Jesus and Scripture. With a heart ablaze with worship and bowed in prayer, may she face life’s challenges with compassion that brings healing to others and bravery that inspires them. May she eagerly prepare herself as a Bride of Your Son and be watchful for the soon return of King Jesus. Amen.”
